ELECTION LAWS OF MISSOURI.

CONSTITUTION OF 1875.

ARTICLE II.

BILL OF RIGHTS.

Sec. 9. Elections must be free and open.—That all elections shall be free and open; and no power, civil or military, shall at any time interfere to prevent the free exercise of the right of suffrage.

[Same in substance as Sec. 14, Art. 1, Const. 1865.]

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

ARTICLE IV.

Sec. 2. Representatives, term, apportionment.—The house of representatives shall consist of members to be chosen every second year by the qualified voters of the several counties, and apportioned in the following manner: The ratio of representation shall be ascertained at each apportioning session of the general assembly, by dividing the whole number of inhabitants of the state, as ascertained by the last decennial census of the United States, by the number two hundred. Each county having one ratio, or less, shall be entitled to one representative; each county having two and a half times said ratio shall be entitled to two representatives; each county having four times said ratio shall be entitled to three representatives; each county having six times such ratio shall be entitled to four representatives, and so on above that number, giving one additional member for every two and a half additional ratios.

[Sec. 2, Art. 4, Const. 1865, gave one additional member for every three additional ratios.]

Sec. 3. Counties, division of into districts.—When any county shall be entitled to more than one representative, the county court shall cause such county to be subdivided into districts of compact and contiguous territory, corresponding in number to the representatives to which such county is entitled, and in population as nearly equal as may be, in each of which the qualified voters shall elect one representative, who shall be a resident of such district: Provided, that when any county shall be entitled to more than ten representatives, the circuit court shall cause such county to be subdivided into districts, so as to give each district not less than two nor more than four representatives, who shall be residents of such district—the population of the districts to be proportioned to the number of representatives to be elected therefrom.

[Substantially the same as last part of Sec. 2, Art. 4, Const. 1865, with proviso added.]

Legislative districts cannot be changed oftener than once in ten years, and not then until reapportionment is made. State ex rel. v. Patterson, 229 Mo. 388.

Sec. 4. Representatives—qualifications.—No person shall be a member of the house of representatives who shall not have attained the age of twenty-four years, who shall not be a male citizen of the United States, who shall not have been a qualified voter of this state two years, and an inhabitant of the county or district which he may be chosen to represent one year next before the day of his election, if such county or district shall have been so long established, but if not, then of the county or district from which the same shall have been taken, and who shall not have paid a state and county tax within one year next preceding the election.

[Substantially same as Sec. 3, Art. 4, Const. 1865.]

Sec. 5. Senators, number—term—senatorial districts.—The senate shall consist of thirty-four members, to be chosen by the qualified voters of their respective districts for four years. For the election of senators the state shall be divided into convenient districts, as nearly equal in population as may be, the same to be ascertained by the last decennial census taken by the United States.

[Substantially same as Sec. 4, Art. 4, Const. 1865.]

Sec. 6. Senators, qualifications—counties divided, when.—No person shall be a senator who shall not have attained the age of thirty years, who shall not be a male citizen of the United States, who shall not have been a qualified voter of this state three years, and an inhabitant of the district which he may be chosen to represent one year next before the day of his election; if such district shall have been so long established, but if not, then of the district or districts from which the same shall have been taken, and who shall not have paid a state and county tax within one year next preceding the election. When any county shall be entitled to more than one senator, the circuit court shall cause such county to be subdivided into districts of compact and contiguous territory, and of population as nearly equal as may be, corresponding in number with the senators to which such county may be entitled; and in each of these, one senator, who shall be a resident of such district, shall be elected by the qualified voters thereof.

[Substantially same as Sec. 5, Art. 4, Const. 1865.]

See note to section three.

Sec. 10. Senators and representatives, when elected.—The first election of senators and representatives, under this Constitution, shall be held at the general election in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, when the whole number of representatives, and the senators from the districts having odd numbers, who shall compose the first class, shall be chosen; and in one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, the senators from the districts having even numbers, who shall compose the second class, and so on at each succeeding general election, half the senators provided for by this Constitution shall be chosen.

[Substantially same as Secs. 9 and 10, Art. 4, Const. 1865.]

Sec. 11. Senatorial districts.—

(The Forty-sixth General Assembly having adjourned without redistricting the State into Senatorial districts, that duty devolved upon the Governor, Secretary of State and the Attorney-General, under the provisions of Sec. 7, Art. IV of the Constitution. Accordingly, April 18, 1911, the Secretary of State and the Attorney-General performed the duty, but the Governor, though present, refused to participate and, afterwards, refused to promulgate the act. The Supreme Court, March 28, 1912, held the said act of redistricting was a legislative one and a function of a co-ordinate branch of the State government and that the court was, therefore, without jurisdiction in the premises; and held further that, as the Governor had failed and refused to perform the duty enjoined upon him by the Constitution to promulgate same by proclamation, the said act was not and is not in effect. The districts here given are, therefore, the senatorial districts as they exist under the law of April 6, 1901, and are as follows:)

First—The counties of Atchison, Gentry, Nodaway and Worth.

Second—The county of Buchanan.

Fifteenth—The counties of Benton, Hickory, Pettis and Saline.

Sixteenth—The counties of Bates, Cedar, Henry and St. Clair.

Seventeenth—The counties of Cass, Johnson and Lafayette.

Eighteenth—The counties of Barry, Lawrence, McDonald and Newton.

[See R. S. 1909, § 8147.]

Sec. 13. Office vacated by removal of residence.—If any senator or representative remove his residence from the district or county for which he was elected, his office shall thereby be vacated.

[This section is the same as Sec. 13, Art. 4, Const. 1865.]

Sec. 14. Writs of election to fill vacancy.—Writs of election to fill such vacancies as may occur in either house of the general assembly shall be issued by the governor.

[This section is the same as Sec. 14, Art. 4, Const. 1865.]

Sec. 17. Organization and rules—may punish members and other persons.—Each house shall appoint its own officers; shall be sole judge of the qualifications, election and returns of its own members; may determine the rules of its own proceedings, except as herein provided; may arrest and punish by fine not exceeding three hundred dollars, or imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding ten days, or both, any person, not a member, who shall be guilty of disrespect to the house by any disorderly or contemptuous behavior in its presence during its sessions; may punish its members for disorderly conduct, and, with the concurrence of two-thirds of all members elect, may expel a member; but no member shall be expelled a second time for the same cause.

[This section is substantially same as Sec. 19, Art. 4, Const. 1865.]

Sec. 53. Special and local laws prohibited.—The general assembly shall not pass any local or special law: * * * * *

(12) For the opening and conducting of elections, or fixing or changing the places of voting:

Sec. 57. Initiative and referendum.—The legislative authority of the state shall be vested in a legislative assembly, consisting of a senate and house of representatives, but the people reserve to themselves power to propose laws and amendments to the Constitution, and to enact or reject the same at the polls, independent of the legislative assembly, and also reserve power at their own option to approve or reject at the polls any act of the legislative assembly. The first power reserved by the people is the initiative, and not more than eight per cent. of the legal voters in each of at least two-thirds of the congressional districts in the state shall be required to propose any measure by such petition, and every such petition shall include the full text of the measure so proposed. Initiative petitions shall be filed with the secretary of state not less than four months before the election at which they are to be voted upon. The second power is the referendum, and it may be ordered (except as to laws necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety and laws making appropriations for the current expenses of the state government, for the maintenance of the state institutions and for the support of the public schools) either by the petition signed by five per cent. of the legal voters in each of at least two-thirds of the congressional districts in the state, or by the legislative assembly, as other bills are enacted. Referendum petitions shall be filed with the secretary of state not more than ninety days after the final adjournment of the session of the legislative assembly which passed the bill on which the referendum is demanded. The veto power of the governor shall not extend to measures referred to the people. All elections on measures referred to the people of the state shall be had at the biennial regular general elections, except when the legislative assembly shall order a special election. Any measure referred to the people shall take effect and become the law when it is approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon, and not otherwise. The style of all bills shall be: "Be it enacted by the people of the state of Missouri." This section shall not be construed to deprive any member of the legislative assembly of the right to introduce any measure. The whole number of votes cast for justice of the supreme court at the regular election last preceding the filing of any petition for the initiative, or for the referendum, shall be the basis on which the number of legal voters necessary to sign such petition shall be counted. Petitions and orders for the initiative and for the referendum shall be filed with the secretary of state, and in submitting the same to the people he, and all other officers, shall be guided by the general laws and the act submitting this amendment, until legislation shall be especially provided therefor.

[New section; adopted in 1908.]

[Same in substance as Sec. 1, Art. 12, Const. 1865.]

Sec. 2. General assembly may propose amendments—how published—submitted to vote.—The general assembly may, at any time, propose such amendments to this Constitution as a majority of the members elected to each house shall deem expedient; and the vote thereon shall be taken by yeas and nays, and entered in full on the journals. The proposed amendments shall be published with the laws of that session, and also shall be published weekly in some newspaper, if such there be, within each county in the state, for four consecutive weeks next preceding the general election then next ensuing. The proposed amendments shall be submitted to a vote of the people, each amendment separately, at the next general election thereafter, in such manner as the general assembly may provide. If a majority of the qualified voters of the state, voting for and against any one of said amendments, shall vote for such amendment, the same shall be deemed and taken to have been ratified by the people, and shall be valid and binding, to all intents and purposes, as a part of this Constitution.

[Same in substance as Sec. 2, Art. 12, Const. 1865.]

Sec. 3. Constitution, how revised and amended by convention, etc. The general assembly may at any time authorize, by law, a vote of the people to be taken upon the question whether a convention shall be held for the purpose of revising and amending the Constitution of this state; and if at such election a majority of the votes on the question be in favor of a convention, the governor shall issue writs to the sheriffs of the different counties, ordering the election of delegates to such a convention, on a day not less than three and within six months after that on which the said question shall have been voted on. At such election each senatorial district shall elect two delegates for each senator to which it may then be entitled in the general assembly, and every such delegate shall have the qualifications of a state senator. The election shall be conducted in conformity with the laws regulating the election of senators. The delegates so elected shall meet at such time and place as may be provided by law, and organize themselves into a convention, and proceed to revise and amend the Constitution; and the Constitution, when so revised and amended, shall, on a day to be therein fixed, not less than sixty days or more than six months after that on which it shall have been adopted by the convention, be submitted to a vote of the people for and against it, at an election to be held for that purpose; and if a majority of all the votes given be in favor of such Constitution, it shall, at the end of thirty days after such election, become the Constitution of this state. The result of such election shall be made known by proclamation by the governor. The general assembly shall have no power, otherwise than in this section specified, to authorize a convention for revising and amending the Constitution.

NATURALIZATION LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

(ACT APPROVED JUNE 29, 1906.)

SEC. 3. That exclusive jurisdiction to naturalize aliens as citizens of the United States is hereby conferred upon the following specified courts:

United States circuit and district courts now existing, or which may hereafter be established by congress in any state, United States district courts for the territories of Arizona, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Hawaii and Alaska, the supreme court of the District of Columbia, and the United States courts for the Indian Territory; also, all courts of record in any state or territory now existing, or which may hereafter be created, having a seal, a clerk, and jurisdiction in actions at law or equity, or law and equity, in which the amount in controversy is unlimited.

That the naturalization jurisdiction of all courts herein specified, state, territorial, and federal, shall extend only to aliens resident within the respective judicial districts of such courts.

The courts herein specified shall, upon the requisition of the clerks of such courts, be furnished from time to time by the bureau of immigration and naturalization with such blank forms as may be required in the naturalization of aliens, and all certificates of naturalization shall be consecutively numbered and printed on safety paper furnished by said bureau.

SEC. 4. That an alien may be admitted to become a citizen of the United States in the following manner and not otherwise:

First—He shall declare on oath before the clerk of any court authorized by this act to naturalize aliens, or his authorized deputy, in the district in which such alien resides, two years at least prior to his admission, and after he has reached the age of eighteen years, that it is bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and to renounce forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty, and particularly, by name, to the prince, potentate, state or sovereignty of which the alien may be at the time a citizen or subject. And such declaration shall set forth the name, age, occupation, personal description, place of birth, last foreign residence and allegiance, the date of arrival, the name of the vessel, if any in which he came to the United States, and the present place of residence in the United States of said alien: Provided, however, that no alien who, in conformity with the law in force at the date of his declaration, has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, shall be required to renew such declaration.

Second—Not less than two years nor more than seven years after he has made such declaration of intention he shall make and file, in duplicate, a petition in writing, signed by the applicant in his own handwriting and duly verified, in which petition such applicant shall state his full name, his place of residence (by street and number, if possible), his occupation, and, if possible, the date and place of his birth; the place from which he emigrated, and the date and place of his arrival in the United States, and, if he entered through a port, the name of the vessel on which he arrived; the time when and the place and name of the court where he declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States; if he is married he shall state the name of his wife and, if possible, the country of her nativity and her place of residence at the time of filing his petition; and if he has children, the name, date, and place of birth and place of residence of each child living at the time of the filing of his petition: Provided, that if he has filed his declaration before the passage of this act he shall not be required to sign the petition in his own handwriting.

The petition shall set forth that he is not a disbeliever in or opposed to organized government, or a member of or affiliated with any organization or body of persons teaching disbelief in or opposed to organized government, a polygamist or believer in the practice of polygamy, and that it is his intention to become a citizen of the United States and to renounce absolutely and forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty, and particularly by name to the prince, potentate, state or sovereignty of which he at the time of filing of his petition may be a citizen or subject, and that it is his intention to reside permanently within the United States, and whether or not he has been denied admission as a citizen of the United States, and, if denied, the ground or grounds of such denial, the court or courts in which such decision was rendered, and that the cause for such denial has since been cured or removed, and every fact material to his naturalization and required to be proved upon the final hearing of his application.

The petition shall also be verified by the affidavits of at least two credible witnesses, who are citizens of the United States, and who shall state in their affidavits that they have personally known the applicant to be a resident of the United States for a period of at least five years continuously, and of the state, territory, or district in which the application is made for a period of at least one year immediately preceding the date of the filing of his petition, and that they each have personal knowledge that the petitioner is a person of good moral character, and that he is in every way qualified, in their opinion, to be admitted as a citizen of the United States.

At the time of filing his petition there shall be filed with the clerk of the court a certificate from the department of commerce and labor, if the petitioner arrives in the United States after the passage of this act, stating the date, place and manner of his arrival in the United States, and the declaration of intention of such petitioner, which certificate and declaration shall be attached to and made a part of said petition.

Third—He shall, before he is admitted to citizenship, declare on oath in open court that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and that he absolutely and entirely renounces and abjures all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state or sovereignty, and particularly by name to the prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty of which he was before a citizen or subject; that he will support and defend the Constitution and laws of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic and bear true faith and allegiance to the same.

Fourth—It shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court admitting any alien to citizenship that immediately preceding the date of his application he has resided continuously within the United States five years at least, and within the state or territory where such court is at the time held one year at least, and that during that time he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same. In addition to the oath of the applicant, the testimony of at least two witnesses, citizens of the United States, as to the facts of residence, moral character and attachment to the principles of the Constitution shall be required, and the name, place of residence, and occupation of each witness shall be set forth in the record.

Fifth—In case the alien applying to be admitted to citizenship has borne any hereditary title, or has been of any of the orders of nobility in the kingdom or state from which he came, he shall, in addition to the above requisites, make an express renunciation of his title or order of nobility in the court to which his application is made, and his renunciation shall be recorded in the court.

Sixth—When any alien who has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States dies before he is actually naturalized the widow and minor children of such alien may, by complying with the other provisions of this act, be naturalized without making any declaration of intention.

SEC. 5. That the clerk of the court shall, immediately after filing the petition, give notice thereof by posting in a public and conspicuous place in his office, or in the building in which his office is situated, under an appropriate heading, the name, nativity and residence of the alien, the date and place of his arrival in the United States, and the date, as nearly as may be, for the final hearing of his petition, and the names of the witnesses whom the applicant expects to summon in his behalf; and the clerk shall, if the applicant requests it, issue a subpoena for the witnesses so named by the said applicant to appear upon the day set for the final hearing, but in case such witnesses can not be produced upon the final hearing other witnesses may be summoned.

SEC. 6. That petitions for naturalization may be made and filed during term time or vacation of the court and shall be docketed the same day as filed, but final action thereon shall be had only on stated days, to be fixed by rule of the court, and in no case shall final action be had upon a petition until at least ninety days have elapsed after filing and posting the notice of such petition: Provided, that no person shall be naturalized nor shall any certificate of naturalization be issued by any court within thirty days preceding the holding of any general election within its territorial jurisdiction. It shall be lawful, at the time and as a part of the naturalization of any alien, for the court, in its discretion, upon the petition of such alien, to make a decree changing the name of said alien, and his certificate of naturalization shall be issued to him in accordance therewith.

SEC. 7. That no person who disbelieves in or who is opposed to organized government, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining and teaching such disbelief in or opposition to organized government, or who advocates or teaches the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the government of the United States, or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who is a polygamist, shall be naturalized or be made a citizen of the United States.

SEC. 8. That no alien shall hereafter be naturalized or admitted as a citizen of the United States who can not speak the English language: Provided, that this requirement shall not apply to aliens who are physically unable to comply therewith if they are otherwise qualified to become citizens of the United States; and provided further, that the requirements of this section shall not apply to any alien who has prior to the passage of this act declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States in conformity with the law in force at the date of making such declaration: Provided further, that the requirements of section eight shall not apply to aliens who shall hereafter declare their intention to become citizens and who shall make homestead entries upon the public lands of the United States and comply in all respects with the laws providing for homestead entries on such lands.

SEC. 9. That every final hearing upon such petition shall be had in open court before a judge or judges thereof, and every final order which may be made upon such petition shall be under the hand of the court and entered in full upon a record kept for that purpose, and upon such final hearing of such petition the applicant and witnesses shall be examined under oath before the court and in the presence of the court.

SEC. 10. That in case the petitioner has not resided in the state, territory, or district for a period of five years continuously and immediately preceding the filing of his petition he may establish by two witnesses, both in his petition and at the hearing, the time of his residence within the state, provided that it has been for more than one year, and the remaining portion of his five years' residence within the United States required by law to be established may be proved by the depositions of two or more witnesses who are citizens of the United States, upon notice to the bureau of immigration and naturalization and the United States attorney for the district in which said witnesses may reside.

SEC. 11. That the United States shall have the right to appear before any court or courts exercising jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings for the purpose of cross-examining the petitioner and the witnesses produced in support of his petition concerning any matter touching or in any way affecting his right to admission to citizenship, and shall have the right to call witnesses, produce evidence, and be heard in opposition to the granting of any petition in naturalization proceedings.

SEC. 12. That it is hereby made the duty of the clerk of each and every court exercising jurisdiction in naturalization matters under the provisions of this act to keep and file a duplicate of each declaration of intention made before him and to send to the bureau of immigration and naturalization at Washington, within thirty days after the issuance of a certificate of citizenship, a duplicate of such certificate, and to make and keep on file in his office a stub for each certificate so issued by him, whereon shall be entered a memorandum of all the essential facts set forth in such certificate. It shall also be the duty of the clerk of each of said courts to report to the said bureau, within thirty days after the final hearing and decision of the court, the name of each and every alien who shall be denied naturalization, and to furnish to said bureau duplicates of all petitions within thirty days after the filing of the same, and certified copies of such other proceedings and orders instituted in or issued out of said court affecting or relating to the naturalization of aliens as may be required from time to time by the said bureau.

In case any such clerk or officer acting under his direction shall refuse or neglect to comply with any of the foregoing provisions he shall forfeit and pay to the United States the sum of twenty-five dollars in each and every case in which such violation or omission occurs, and the amount of such forfeiture may be recovered by the United States in an action of debt against such clerk.

Clerks of courts having and exercising jurisdiction in naturalization matters shall be responsible for all blank certificates of citizenship received by them from time to time from the bureau of immigration and naturalization, and shall account for the same to the said bureau whenever required so to do by such bureau. No certificate of citizenship received by any such clerk which may be defaced or injured in such manner as to prevent its use as herein provided shall in any case be destroyed, but such certificate shall be returned to the said bureau; and in case any such clerk shall fail to return or properly account for any certificate furnished by the said bureau, as herein provided, he shall be liable to the United States in the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered in an action of debt, for each and every certificate not properly accounted for or returned.

SEC. 13. That the clerk of each and every court exercising jurisdiction in naturalization cases shall charge, collect and account for the following fees in each proceeding:

For receiving and filing a declaration of intention and issuing a duplicate thereof, one dollar.

For making, filing and docketing the petition of an alien for admission as a citizen of the United States and for the final hearing thereon, two dollars; and for entering the final order and the issuance of the certificate of citizenship thereunder, if granted, two dollars.

The clerk of any court collecting such fees is hereby authorized to retain one-half of the fees collected by him in such naturalization proceeding; the remaining one-half of the naturalization fees in each case collected by such clerks, respectively, shall be accounted for in their quarterly accounts, which they are hereby required to render the bureau of immigration and naturalization, and paid over to such bureau within thirty days from the close of each quarter in each and every fiscal year, and the moneys so received shall be paid over to the disbursing clerk of the department of commerce and labor, who shall thereupon deposit them in the treasury of the United States, rendering an account therefor quarterly to the auditor for the state and other departments, and the said disbursing clerk shall be held responsible under his bond for said fees so received.

In addition to the fees herein required, the petitioner shall, upon the filing of his petition to become a citizen of the United States, deposit with and pay to the clerk of the court a sum of money sufficient to cover the expenses of subpoenaing and paying the legal fees of any witnesses for whom he may request a subpoena, and upon the final discharge of such witnesses they shall receive, if they demand the same from the clerk, the customary and usual witness fees from the moneys which the petitioner shall have paid to such clerk for such purpose, and the residue, if any, shall be returned by the clerk to the petitioner: Provided, that the clerks of courts exercising jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings shall be permitted to retain one-half of the fees in any fiscal year up to the sum of three thousand dollars, and that all fees received by such clerks in naturalization proceedings in excess of such amount shall be accounted for and paid over to said bureau as in case of other fees to which the United States may be entitled under the provisions of this act. The clerks of the various courts exercising jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings shall pay all additional clerical force that may be required in performing the duties imposed by this act upon the clerks of courts from fees received by such clerks in naturalization proceedings. And in case the clerk of any court collects fees in excess of the sum of six thousand dollars in any one year, the secretary of commerce and labor may allow to such clerk from the money which the United States shall receive, additional compensation for the employment of additional clerical assistance, but for no other purpose, if in the opinion of the said secretary the business of such clerk warrants such allowance.

SEC. 14. That the declarations of intention and the petitions for naturalization shall be bound in chronological order in separate volumes, indexed, consecutively numbered, and made part of the records of the court. Each certificate of naturalization issued shall bear upon its face, in a place prepared therefor, the volume number and page number of the petition whereon such certificate was issued, and the volume number and page number of the stub of such certificate.

SEC. 15. That it shall be the duty of the United States district attorneys for the respective districts, upon affidavit showing good cause therefor, to institute proceedings in any court having jurisdiction to naturalize aliens in the judicial district in which the naturalized citizen may reside at the time of bringing the suit, for the purpose of setting aside and canceling the certificate of citizenship on the ground of fraud or on the ground that such certificate of citizenship was illegally procured. In any such proceedings the party holding the certificate of citizenship alleged to have been fraudulently or illegally procured shall have sixty days personal notice in which to make answer to the petition of the United States; and if the holder of such certificate be absent from the United States or from the district in which he last had his residence, such notice shall be given by publication in the manner provided for the service of summons by publication or upon absentees by the laws of the state or the place where such suit is brought.

If any alien who shall have secured a certificate of citizenship under the provisions of this act shall, within five years after the issuance of such certificate, return to the country of his nativity, or go to any other foreign country, and take permanent residence therein, it shall be considered prima facie evidence of a lack of intention on the part of such alien to become a permanent citizen of the United States at the time of filing his application for citizenship, and, in the absence of countervailing evidence, it shall be sufficient in the proper proceeding to authorize the cancellation of his certificate of citizenship as fraudulent, and the diplomatic and consular offices of the United States in foreign countries shall from time to time, through the department of state, furnish the department of justice with the names of those within their respective jurisdictions who have such certificates of citizenship and who have taken permanent residence in the country of their nativity, or in any other foreign country, and such statements, duly certified, shall be admissible in evidence in all courts in proceedings to cancel certificates of citizenship.

Whenever any certificate of citizenship shall be set aside or canceled, as herein provided, the court in which such judgment or decree is rendered shall make an order canceling such certificate of citizenship and shall send a certified copy of such order to the bureau of immigration and naturalization; and in case such certificate was not originally issued by the court making such order it shall direct the clerk of the court to transmit a copy of such order and judgment to the court out of which such certificate of citizenship shall have been originally issued. And it shall thereupon be the duty of the clerk of the court receiving such certified copy of the order and judgment of the court to enter the same of record and to cancel such original certificate of citizenship upon the records and to notify the bureau of immigration and naturalization of such cancellation.

The provisions of this section shall apply not only to certificates of citizenship issued under the provisions of this act, but to all certificates of citizenship which may have been issued heretofore by any court exercising jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings under prior laws.

SEC. 16. That every person who falsely makes, forges, counterfeits, or causes or procures to be falsely made, forged, or counterfeited, or knowingly aids or assists in falsely making, forging or counterfeiting any certificate of citizenship, with intent to use the same, or with the intent that the same may be used by some other person or persons, shall be guilty of a felony, and a person convicted of such offense shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than ten years, or by a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 17. That every person who engraves or causes or procures to be engraved, or assists in engraving, any plate in the likeness of any plate designed for the printing of a certificate of citizenship, or who sells any such plate, or who brings into the United States from any foreign place any such plate, except under the direction of the secretary of commerce and labor, or other proper officer, and any person who has in his control, custody or possession any metallic plate engraved after the similitude of any plate from which any such certificate has been printed, with intent to use such plate or suffer the same to be used in forging or counterfeiting any such certificate or any part thereof; and every person who prints, photographs, or in any other manner causes to be printed, photographed, made or executed, any print or impression in the likeness of any such certificate, or any part thereof, or who sells any such certificate, or brings the same into the United States from any foreign place, except by direction of some proper officer of the United States, or who has in his possession a distinctive paper which has been adopted by the proper officer of the United States for the printing of such certificate, with intent to unlawfully use the same, shall be punished by a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars, or by imprisonment at hard labor for not more than ten years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 18. That it is hereby made a felony for any clerk or other person to issue or be a party to the issuance of a certificate of citizenship contrary to the provisions of this act, except upon a final order under the hand of a court having jurisdiction to make such order, and upon conviction thereof such clerk or other person shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than five years and by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 19. That every person who without lawful excuse is possessed of any blank certificate of citizenship provided by the bureau of immigration and naturalization, with intent unlawfully to use the same, shall be imprisoned at hard labor not more than five years or be fined not more than one thousand dollars.

SEC. 20. That any clerk or other officer of a court having power under this act to naturalize aliens, who willfully neglects to render true accounts of moneys received by him for naturalization proceedings, or who willfully neglects to pay over any balance of such moneys due to the United States within thirty days after said payment shall become due and demand therefor has been made and refused, shall be deemed guilty of embezzlement of the public moneys, and shall be punishable by imprisonment for not more than five years, or by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or both.

SEC. 21. That it shall be unlawful for any clerk of any court or his authorized deputy or assistant exercising jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings to demand, charge, collect, or receive any other or additional fees or moneys in naturalization proceedings save the fees and moneys herein specified; and a violation of any of the provisions of this section or any part thereof is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than two years, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 22. That the clerk of any court exercising jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings, or any person acting under authority of this act, who shall knowingly certify that a petitioner, affiant, or witness named in an affidavit, petition or certificate of citizenship, or other paper or writing required to be executed under the provisions of this act, personally appeared before him and was sworn thereto, or acknowledged the execution thereof or signed the same, when in fact such petitioner, affiant or witness did not personally appear before him, or was not sworn thereto, or did not execute the same, or did not acknowledge the execution thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not to exceed five years.

SEC. 23. That any person who knowingly procures naturalization in violation of the provisions of this act shall be fined not more than five thousand dollars, or shall be imprisoned not more than five years, or both, and upon conviction the court in which such conviction is had shall thereupon adjudge and declare the final order admitting such person to citizenship void. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred on the courts having jurisdiction of the trial of such offense to make such adjudication. Any person who knowingly aids, advises or encourages any person not entitled thereto to apply for or to secure naturalization, or to file the preliminary papers declaring an intent to become a citizen of the United States, or who in any naturalization proceeding knowingly procures or gives false testimony as to any material fact, or who knowingly makes an affidavit false as to any material fact required to be proved in such proceeding, shall be fined not more than five thousand dollars, or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

SEC. 24. That no person shall be prosecuted, tried or punished for any crime arising under the provisions of this act unless the indictment is found or the information is filed within five years next after the commission of such crime.

SEC. 25. That for the purpose of the prosecution of all crimes and offenses against the naturalization laws of the United States which may have been committed prior to the date when this act shall go into effect, the existing naturalization laws shall remain in full force and effect.

SEC. 27. That substantially the following forms shall be used in the proceedings to which they relate:

That for the purpose of making nominations to fill vacancies on a ticket previously nominated a majority of all the members-elect of a central committee shall be necessary to take action. That a central committee shall not have the power to delegate its authority to make nominations to any person or number of persons, and that any act consequent upon any such delegation of authority shall be held to be null and void. That no central committee shall have the power to substitute, to fill any vacancy, the name of any person who is not known to be of the same political belief and party as the person for whom he is substituted. In case such objection is made notice thereof shall forthwith be mailed to all candidates who may be affected thereby, addressed to them at their respective places of residence as given in the certificate of nomination. Objections to use of party name may also be made and passed upon in the same manner as objections to certificates. The secretary of state or the county clerk, as the case may be, with whom the original certificate was filed, shall in the first instance pass upon the validity of such objection and his decision shall be final, unless an order shall be made in the matter by the supreme court, or a circuit court, or by a judge of such court in vacation, before the date for the certification of the names of nominees by the secretary of state to the county clerk, or before the time at which the county clerk is required by law to publish the names of nominees as certified to him. Such order may be made summarily upon application of any party interested, and upon such notice as the court or judge may require. The decision of the secretary of state, county clerk, or the order of the court or judge thereof in vacation, shall be binding on all county and municipal officers with whom certificates of nomination are filed. In case of a division in any party and claims by two or more factions to the same party name or title, the secretary of state or county clerk shall give the preference of name to the convention held at the time and place designated in the call of the regularly constituted party authorities, and if the other faction or factions shall present no other party name, the secretary of state or county clerk shall select a name or title, and place the same on the ballot before the list of candidates of said faction. The action of the preceding regular convention of such party regularly called shall determine the action of the secretary of state, the county clerk or the court, in its decision. The secretary of state or county clerk may be compelled, by peremptory order or mandamus proceedings, to perform his duty in this regard: Provided, that in all cities having a board of election commissioners, the said board shall perform all the duties herein required of county clerks and be governed in all respects by the provisions of sections 5848 and 5849, the same as county clerks. (R. S. 1899, § 7090, amended, Laws 1909, p. 490.)

Sec. 5851. He shall make not less than two such publications in each of such newspapers before the election, one of which publications in each newspaper shall be upon the last day upon which such newspaper is issued before the election. If there be no newspaper published in his county, the clerk of the county court shall, at least seven days before the election, cause to be posted in his office and at some public place in each township of his county, a printed notice of the nominations to office certified to him by the secretary of state, and also those filed in his office. (R. S. 1899, § 7091.)

Sec. 5852. List of nominations to be arranged, etc.—The list of nominations published by the clerks of the county courts of the respective counties shall be arranged in the order and form in which they will be printed upon the ballot. (R. S. 1899, § 7092.)

Sec. 5853. Secretary not to certify names, when—etc.—But the secretary of state shall not certify the name of a candidate whose certificate of nomination shall have been filed in his office, who shall have notified him in writing, signed and executed with the formalities prescribed for the execution of an instrument affecting real estate to entitle it to record, that he will not accept the nomination contained in the certificate of nomination. The clerk of the county court shall not include in the publication to be made according to section 5851, the name of any candidate whose certificate of nomination shall have been filed in his office who shall have notified him in like manner that he will not accept the nomination. The names of such candidates shall not be included in the names of the candidates to be printed in the ballots as hereinafter provided. (R. S. 1899, § 7093.)

Sec. 5854. To the treasurer of the county central committee—five dollars, if he be a candidate for state representative or any county office; take a receipt therefor, and file such receipt with and at the time he files his declaration papers. The said sums of money, so paid by the several candidates, shall be evidence of their good faith in filing said declaration papers, and shall be used as an expense fund by the several political parties upon whose tickets the various candidates propose as candidates and seek nomination; and such sums of money, so paid, shall be excepted from the terms and provisions of article XII, of this chapter. (Laws 1909, p. 481.)

Sec. 5861. Deposit to go to general revenue fund, when.—Any person desiring to file declaration papers, or propose as a candidate on any independent or non-partisan ticket, who does not announce by declaration papers as a candidate for any political party as defined by this article, and is not a member of a political party having a state and county committee, or treasurer thereof, shall pay the sum of money required by this article to be paid by the candidate for the office for which he proposes to the state or county treasurer, as the case may be; take a receipt therefor, and file said receipt with his declaration papers; said sum of money, so paid, shall go into the general revenue fund of the state or county. (Laws 1909, p. 481.)

Sec. 5862. Declaration to be filed, where.—No person shall file more than one written declaration indicating the party designation under which his name is to be printed on the official ballot, and all declaration papers shall be filed as follows: 1. For state officers, representatives in congress, courts of appeal and circuit judges, and those members of the senate and assembly whose districts comprise more than one county, in the office of the secretary of state. 2. (Laws 1909, p. 481.)

Sec. 5863. Secretary of state to notify county clerks of candidates, etc.—At least fifty-five days before any primary preceding a general election, the secretary of state shall transmit to each county clerk a certified list containing the name and postoffice address of each person who shall have filed declaration papers in his office, and entitled to be voted for at such primary, together with a designation of the office for which he is a candidate, and the party or principle he represents. (Laws 1909, p. 481.)

Sec. 5864. County clerk shall publish names of candidates, etc.—when and how long.—Such clerks shall, upon receipt thereof, publish, under the proper party designation, the title of each office, the names and addresses of all persons who shall have filed declaration papers, giving the name and address of each, the date of the primary, the hours during which the polls will be opened, and that the primary will be held at the regular polling places in each precinct. It shall be the duty of the county clerk to publish such notice for three consecutive weeks next prior to said primary. (Laws 1909, p. 481.)

Sec. 5865. In what papers publication is to be made.—Every publication required in this article shall be made in not less than two newspapers of general circulation in such county; one of such newspapers shall represent the political party that cast the largest vote in such county at the preceding general election, and one of such newspapers shall represent the political party that cast the next largest vote in such county at the preceding general election. In any case where the publication of notice cannot be made as hereinbefore required, it may be made in any newspaper having a general circulation in the county in which the notice is required to be published. (Laws 1909, p. 481.)

Such sample ballot shall be printed upon tinted or colored paper, and shall contain no blank endorsement or certificate. Such clerk shall forthwith submit the ticket of each party to the county chairman thereof, and mail a copy to each candidate to his postoffice address, as given in his declaration paper, and he shall post a copy of each sample ballot in a conspicuous place in his office. On the tenth day before such primary the county clerk shall correct any errors or omissions in the ballot, cause the same to be printed and distributed, as required by law, in the case of ballots for the general election, except that the number of ballots to be furnished to each precinct shall be twice the number of votes cast thereat in the last preceding general election. (Laws 1909, p. 481.)

Sec. 5869. Tickets, how prepared—how voted.—At all primaries there shall be as many separate tickets as there are parties entitled to participate in said primary election. There shall also be a non-partisan ticket, upon which, under appropriate title of each office, shall be printed the names of all persons by whom declaration papers shall have been filed, as required by this article, who do not announce by such declaration papers as candidates for any political party, as defined by this article. The names of all candidates shall be arranged under the appropriate title of the respective offices, and under the proper party designation upon the party ticket, and upon the non-partisan ticket, as the case may be; and the names of the candidates for each office shall be so alternated on the ballots used in the several election districts or precincts, that each name shall appear thereon substantially an equal number of times at the top, at the bottom, and in each intermediate place, if any, of the lists or group of names in which such candidate's name belongs, and all officers charged with the preparation and distribution of such ballots shall cause the printers' forms to be so transposed and the ballots so made up as to carry out the intent of this provision. If any elector write upon his ticket the name of any person who is a candidate for the same office upon some other ticket than that upon which his name is so written, this ballot shall not be counted for such person. On any day of nomination of public officers in any primary election precinct, each qualified elector shall be entitled to receive from the judges of the election one ballot of the political party participating in such election for which he desires to vote. It shall be the duty of such judges of election to deliver such ballot to the electors. Before delivering any ballot to the elector, the two judges of election having charge of the ballot shall write their names or initials upon the back of the ballot with indelible pencil, and no other writing shall be on the back of the ballot except the number of the ballot voted. (Laws 1909, p. 481; amended, Laws 1911, p. 242.)

Sec. 5870. Vacancies, how filled.—Vacancies occurring after the holding of any primary or where no person shall offer himself as a candidate before such primary, shall be filled by the party committee of the district, county or state, as the case may be: Provided, however, that no name shall be allowed on any ticket until the required fee shall have been paid. (Laws 1909, p. 481.)

Sec. 5871. Who entitled to vote.—No person shall be entitled to vote at any primary unless a qualified elector of the precinct and duly registered therein, if registration thereat be required by law, and known to affiliate with the political party named at the head of the ticket he calls for, and attempts to vote, or obligates himself to support the nominees of said party at the following general election. (Laws 1909, p. 481.)

Sec. 5872. Who may be challengers and witnesses.—The county, ward or township committeeman of each party in each county, or the ward committeeman in any city with a population of over 300,000, may appoint two party agents or representatives, with alternates for each, who may represent his party at the polling place in each precinct during the casting, canvass and return of the vote at a primary, who shall act as challengers and witnesses to the count of the vote for their respective parties, and have the power prescribed by law. (Laws 1909, p. 481.)

Sec. 5873. What ballots may be rejected—judges may administer oaths.—It shall be the duty of the challenger to challenge and the duty of the judges of election to reject the ballot of any person attempting to vote other than the ticket of the party with which he is known to be affiliated, unless such person, when challenged, obligates himself, by oath or affirmation, administered by one of the judges, to support the party nominees of the ticket he is voting in the following general election. All judges of the election shall have authority and are empowered to administer such oath, or affirmation, and any person offering to vote who shall fail or refuse to take or make such oath or affirmation when demanded by such challenger, or required by any judge, shall not be allowed to vote at such primary election. (Laws 1909, p. 481.)

Sec. 5874. Votes canvassed, how—who may be present.—The canvass of votes shall be made in the same manner and by the same officers as the canvass of an election. The party chairman of the city in a precinct canvass, of the county in a county canvass, of the state in a state canvass, or some duly appointed agent to represent each party, shall be allowed to be present and observe the proceedings. (Laws 1909, p. 481.)

Sec. 5875. Returns, how made and to whom.—The precinct judges and clerks of election shall, on separate sheets, on blanks to be provided for that purpose, make full and accurate returns of the votes cast for each candidate, and shall, within twenty-four hours, cause to be delivered one copy of such returns as to each political party to the county chairman of that party, and also cause such returns to be delivered to the county clerk: Provided, always, that such returns shall be sent by registered mail where practicable. (Laws 1909, p. 481.)

Sec. 5876. County canvass of returns, how conducted.—The county canvass of the returns of a primary shall be made by the same officers, and in the same manner as now provided by law, for the canvass of returns of a November election. The canvassers shall meet and canvass such returns at ten o'clock on the Friday following the primary. Their returns shall contain the whole number of votes cast for each candidate of each political party, and a duplicate as to each political party shall be delivered to the county chairman of such party. The canvassers shall also make an additional duplicate return in the same form, showing the votes cast for each candidate not voted for wholly within the limits of the county. The county clerk shall forthwith send to the secretary of state, by registered mail, one complete copy of all returns as to such candidates, and he shall likewise send to the chairman of the state central committee of each party a duplicate copy of the returns last described relating to such candidates of each party. (Laws 1909, p. 481.)

Sec. 5877. Whose name shall appear on official ballot as nominee. The person receiving the greatest number of votes at a primary as the candidate of a party for an office shall be the candidate of that party for such office, and his name as such candidate shall be placed on the official ballot at the following election. (Laws 1909, p. 481.)

Sec. 5878. Secretary of state shall publish result.—As soon as the state canvass of a primary shall be certified to him, the secretary of state shall cause to be published a certified statement of the result of such primary as to candidates for state officers, and representatives in congress, and any other candidate whose district extends beyond the limits of a single county, and shall mail to the chairman of the state central committee of each party so much of such certificate as relates to his party. (Laws 1909, p. 481.)

Sec. 5879. Secretary of state to certify nominees to county clerks. Not less than twenty days before any November election the secretary of state shall certify to the county clerk of each county within which any of the electors may vote for the candidates for such offices, the name and description of each person nominated for any such office as specified in the nomination papers. (Laws 1907, p. 263, amended, Laws of 1909, p. 480.)

This act was approved June 12, 1909. The corresponding section of the new primary law, 1909, was approved June 1, 1909, and fixes fourteen instead of twenty days.

Sec. 5880. Committeemen, how chosen—platform, how made.—At the August primary each voter may write, in the space left on his

Each county committee, composed of the various ward and township committeemen, shall meet at the county seat of such county on the first Tuesday after the said August primary, and organize by the election of one of its members as chairman, and in counties having more than one legislative district a vice-chairman for each of such legislative districts, and by electing a secretary and treasurer, who need not be members of said committee, and the chairman and the vice-chairman so elected shall, by virtue thereof, each become a member of the party congressional, senatorial and judicial committee of the district of which his county is a part: Provided, that if any such congressional district shall consist wholly of one county, then the members of the county committee of such county shall constitute the congressional committee of such district: Provided further, that if any congressional district shall consist in part of any county containing a population of not less than 75,000 inhabitants, and in part of a portion of a city which city contains not less than 500,000 inhabitants, then the members of the county committee of such county and the ward committeeman from that portion of the city located in such congressional district shall constitute the congressional committee of such district. Such congressional committee shall meet at some point in such congressional district, to be designated by the then chairman of the congressional committee, on the third Tuesday in August, and, when so met, shall organize by the election of one of its members as chairman, and by electing a secretary and treasurer, and shall then proceed to name two qualified electors of such district as members of the party state committee, which state committee, being composed of two members from each congressional district in the state, shall meet at noon on the fourth Tuesday of August at some point in the state to be designated by the then state committee, and organize by the election of a chairman, who shall be chairman of the state committee, and by the election of a secretary and treasurer, and after having so organized, shall meet with the party nominees for state officers, congressmen, state senators, representatives, and forthwith formulate a state platform for their party, and make public the same not later than six o'clock in the afternoon of the following day. Sec. 5910. Sec. 5971. Vote to be by ballot—form of same—method of voting. The vote on a proposition to call a constitutional convention, or on the adoption of a new constitution, or on any proposed constitutional amendment or amendments, shall be taken by ballot. Such amendments shall be designated on each ballot by their respective numbers as arranged by the secretary of state. If a proposition to call a

If the adoption of a new constitution is submitted, each ballot shall have printed thereon the words "New constitution," with "yes" and "no" to the right thereof, one above the other. The clerk of the county court of each county shall provide for each district in his county, and the election commissioners for each election district in their city, a separate ballot box for the deposit and reception of the constitutional ballots. To vote for or against constitutional amendments, or other subjects if any are submitted, the voter shall erase or strike out the word "no" if he is in favor of the particular amendment or proposition and the word "yes" if he is opposed to the same. In all other respects the law governing the printing, distributing of ballots, the number to be distributed, and the manner of voting ballots at a general election shall apply to "Constitutional ballots" where not in conflict with this section. Sec. 5983. Notice of primary to be published, how long—contents of notice.—At least sixty days prior to the regular state and county elections, and at least twenty days prior to any convention to which delegates are to be elected, said county central or controlling committee shall cause to be published for at least five consecutive days in at least two daily newspapers of general circulation, printed in the English language, at least one of which shall be printed in the largest city in such county, a notice which shall state the purpose of such primary, and the time for holding the same, the location of the various voting places for such primary, the number of delegates to which each ward or election district is entitled, and the time and place at which delegates and the names of candidates may be filed. (Laws 1901, p. 165, amended, Laws 1903, p. 193.)

Sec. 5984. Time of holding primary.—All primary elections shall be held at least forty days before any general election, and at least three days before any convention to which delegates are to be elected at said primary election. (Laws 1901, p. 165.)

Sec. 5985. Who eligible to vote—penalty for illegal voting.—No person shall be allowed to vote at any primary election within a city in such county having a board of election commissioners and a system of registration, unless he shall be at the time of such primary election an actual and bona fide resident of the primary election district where he shall offer his vote, and a member of the political party holding such primary election, and unless his name appears upon the last official registration list of such city for a precinct in said district; and in those portions of the county lying outside of the city no person shall be allowed to vote who has not been for a period of thirty days a bona fide citizen and resident of the election district where he shall offer to vote and who is not also a member of the party holding such primary election. Any person voting or offering to vote at such primary election who is not a qualified voter in the district where he shall offer to vote, or who shall vote or offer to vote more than once at such primary, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished as provided in section 5996. (Laws 1901, p. 165.)

Sec. 5986. Committee to divide wards—locate polling places—duties of county courts.—Said committee shall, at least ten days prior to the holding of any such primary election, divide each ward in any city containing more than one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants in such counties, into two primary election districts, including as nearly as possible an equal number of registered voters, as shown by the last official registration. The division lines of said wards shall run as nearly as possible, wherever practicable, either in a general direction from north to south or in a general direction from east to west, and shall follow election precinct lines; and said committee shall locate a polling place in each district so that it may be convenient to the largest number of voters therein. In all those parts of the county lying outside of the limits of said city primary elections shall be held in election districts as established by the order of the county court, and the voting places shall be located as established by order of the county committee. (Laws 1901, p. 165.)

Sec. 5987. Apportionment of delegates—basis of representation. Each election district outside of cities and each ward within such cities shall be entitled to such proportion of the total number of delegates to be elected in said county as the total number of votes cast in said district or ward at the last preceding general election for the candidate of such party for a state office receiving the highest number of votes bears to the total of votes of such county for such candidate. Subject to the foregoing, the county committee shall have the right to fix the basis of representation. (Laws 1901, p. 165, amended, Laws 1903, p. 193.)

Sec. 5988. Filing delegations—delegation by petition—duties of committee.—On the day and at the place fixed in said notice for the filing of delegations the said county central committee, or its chairman and secretary, shall be present for the purpose of receiving and filing delegations from nine o'clock a. m. to six o'clock p. m., after which time no delegation shall be received or filed. Any number of qualified voters of any such primary election district, but not less than ten in number, may by petition, and by depositing with the said committee, or its chairman and secretary as aforesaid, such sum for each delegate as may be prescribed by the resolution of the committee for each name on each delegation, have placed upon the ballot a delegation selected by them, and any citizen possessing the qualifications of a voter may become a candidate at such primary election by depositing such sum as may be prescribed by the said committee for candidates for said office. The delegates shall be elected by wards in the cities and by election districts outside the limits of said cities as herein provided. It shall be the duty of the committee, or its chairman and secretary, to receive all delegations that may be filed between said hours, and upon request to issue a receipt to the person filing the same, showing that said delegation has been filed, and to keep a record of all delegations filed, which shall be open to public inspection; and no name shall be voted for at said primary election unless it shall have been filed as aforesaid. And in such counties no name shall be placed upon the official ballots as provided in section 5890, Revised Statutes, 1909, unless said person is nominated in accordance with the provisions of this article, or nominated by petition as provided by law. (Laws 1901, p. 165, amended, Laws 1903, p. 193.)

Sec. 5989. Judges and clerks, how named—opening of polls—ballots, how marked—ballot boxes—returns, etc.—Each delegation at the time of the filing thereof may name one judge and one clerk, and the persons so selected shall constitute the board of judges and clerks for the election district. In the event that any judge or clerk so selected fails to act, then the delegation shall have the right, by a majority vote, to select another judge or clerk to serve. The persons named herein as judges and clerks of election, or any persons in their absence or refusal to serve, assuming or chosen to be such judges and clerks of the election aforesaid, shall first sign an oath or affirmation, duly attested by some officer authorized to administer oaths, that they are legal voters of the district in which such election is to be held; that they will faithfully and correctly conduct such election, protect it against all fraud or unfairness, carefully and truly canvass all votes cast thereat, in such manner as may be required by this article, and of the authority appointing the election not inconsistent with the provisions of this article. Said polls shall be open as prescribed by the rules of said committee, but said polls shall be open at least from one o'clock p. m. until seven o'clock p. m. in such cities. Before the judges in said cities shall deposit any ballot in the box they shall at once after receiving it from the voter, and in his presence, number the same with a number corresponding to the number of votes cast, and place the same number on the poll book opposite the name of the voter casting such ballot, and a judge or clerk representing opposing delegations, if there be more than one delegation, shall write his initials on each ballot before placing the same in the box, and no ballot shall be counted unless so initialed and numbered. One ballot box only shall be used at each district polling place, which shall be opened and inspected by all the judges and clerks at the opening of the polls. Said ballot box shall then be locked and so kept until the polls are closed. The ballots shall be deposited in said box and left there until the polls are closed as aforesaid, when they shall, without being taken from said polling place, be immediately counted, and the result at once certified to by all said judges and clerks, and at once returned, with all certificates, poll books, ballots, rejected ballots, boxes, oaths of judges and clerks and other papers, to the county central or controlling committee, or the chairman and secretary thereof, who, for that purpose, shall be and remain at the office of the board of election commissioners in said city, and receive said returns, in the presence of the election commissioners, if they see fit to attend; and said returns and ballots shall be carefully preserved by said committee in said office until the convention to which said delegates shall be elected is held, unless otherwise ordered by a judge of the circuit court. It is hereby made the duty of said judges and clerks to sign and certify said returns unless they refuse for good and sufficient reasons, which said reasons they shall file in writing with said returns. In case any of the judges or clerks refuse to sign the returns for any election district, then it shall be the duty of the said committee to deliver to said convention when organized, the poll books and ballots and returns used at such polling place at said election. The said ballot boxes shall be sealed by the chairman and secretary of the said county central or controlling committee, and shall be kept in such office subject only to delivery to the convention, or to a judge of the circuit court. All returns and ballot boxes from primary districts in both city and county shall be made as aforesaid at office of election commissioners. (Laws 1901, p. 165.)

Sec. 5990. Certificate, by whom issued—controversies, how determined.—The chairman and secretary of said committee shall issue a certificate of election to each candidate and delegate receiving the highest number of votes where the judges and clerks all sign the returns. In case any of said judges and clerks refuse to sign said returns, then the chairman and secretary of the committee shall not issue credentials for a period of twenty-four hours, and in the meantime shall give an opportunity to the various candidates for delegates and for offices to be heard, and shall summarily, within the said twenty-four hours, decide who is entitled to certificates as aforesaid, and shall issue said certificates at the end of forty-eight hours after the close of said polls, unless within that time the candidate or delegate shall file his petition, either for himself, or jointly, with one or more of his associates on the ticket, duly verified by oath, with one of the judges of the circuit court, either in term or vacation, setting forth that he or they was or were duly elected at said primary election, and the grounds and reasons why a certificate of election should be issued to him or them. Said judge shall at once, upon the filing of said petition, order the chairman and secretary of said committee to show cause why a certificate of election should not issue to said petitioner, and the said judge shall, in a summary manner, hear and decide the matters in controversy, and shall have power, if necessary, to postpone, by order, the holding of the convention for such reasonable time as may be necessary to decide the controversy, not to exceed ten days; and upon hearing of said controversy the said judge shall make an order upon the chairman and secretary of said committee to issue a certificate of election to the person justly entitled thereto. (Laws 1901, p. 165.)

Sec. 5991. Delegates holding certificates to be entitled to seats in convention—meeting called to order, by whom.—Each delegate holding a certificate of election as aforesaid shall be entitled to a seat in such convention, and to participate in the preliminary organization thereof, and such certificate delivered to such candidate shall be prima facie evidence of the nomination for the office therein named. Every convention shall be called to order by the chairman of the committee from which the call originates, or by a person designated in writing for the purpose by such chairman. The temporary chairman of the convention shall be chosen on a call of the official roll, which shall consist as to the delegates of the persons holding the certificates of election herein provided for. The person who calls the convention to order shall exercise no other function than that of causing the official roll of delegates to be called, and the declaring of the result thereof. The committees of the convention shall be appointed by the convention, or by the temporary chairman, as the convention may order by official roll call. Each convention shall decide all questions as to the contested seats therein. (Laws 1901, p. 165.)

Sec. 5992. Ballot boxes to be furnished by whom—poll books and registration lists.—The board of election commissioners shall furnish to said county committee a sufficient number of ballot boxes to properly conduct said primary election, which shall be returned to said board of election commissioners as hereinbefore provided, and they shall also, in said cities, furnish the poll books heretofore referred to, together with copies of the last official registration list for the election precincts contained in the primary election districts as heretofore defined. (Laws 1901, p. 165.)

Sec. 5993. Judges and clerks to be appointed by central committees, when.—In the event of a failure to select judges and clerks of election in any election district herein provided for, in the manner aforesaid, then the said county central or controlling committee shall have the power to appoint such judges and clerks. (Laws 1901, p. 165.)

Sec. 5994. Central committee to make rules and regulations.—The county central or controlling committee of said county shall have the power to make all such reasonable rules and regulations as to the conduct of primary elections as are not in conflict with the provisions of this article. (Laws 1901, p. 165.)

Sec. 5995. Delegates at large, how chosen.—In case the representation to any convention called by any other political committee than the county committee shall be such that any district or ward is not entitled to at least one delegate, then the county central or controlling committee may order that the delegate shall be elected from such district or ward as the county central or controlling committee may establish. (Laws 1901, p. 165, amended, Laws 1903, p. 193.)

Sec. 5996. Penalties.—Any person voting at such primary election who is not a qualified voter in the district where he shall offer to vote, or who shall vote or offer to vote more than once at said primary election, and any judge or clerk of election, or person assuming or chosen to act as such judge or clerk, or any chairman or secretary or acting chairman and secretary, or any member of any county central or controlling committee, or any election commissioner or other person who shall violate any of the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Laws 1901, p. 165.)

Sec. 5997. Inconsistent laws repealed.—Article VIII of chapter 43 of the Revised Statutes of 1909, so far as applicable to any such primary elections to be held in such counties, and all other acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith, are hereby repealed. (Laws 1901, p. 165.)

Sec. 6013. Definition and construction of article.—Whenever the provisions of this law in operation prove to be of doubtful or uncertain meaning, or not sufficiently explicit in directions and details, the general laws of Missouri, and especially the election and registration laws, and the customs, practice, usage and forms thereunder, in the same circumstances or under like conditions, shall be followed in the construction and operation of this law, to the end, that the protection of the spirit and intention of said laws shall be extended so far as possible to all primary nominating elections provided by this article (Laws 1913, p. 337.)

Sec. 6014. Nominations—how made—exceptions.—Hereafter all candidates for elective offices other than those to be elected at a general state election and all special elections to fill vacancies in cities of this state which now have or which hereafter acquire 400,000 inhabitants or more, shall be nominated at a primary election by the direct vote of the qualified voters of such cities or by certificates of election, in accordance with the provisions of this act. A political party, within the meaning of this article, is an affiliation of electors representing a political party or organization which at the last preceding general state election before such primary polled as a party at least three per cent of the entire vote cast in such city for the office of governor or for the office of judge of the supreme court, elected at such preceding election. The term “non-partisan candidate,” within the meaning of this article, shall apply to all candidates who shall be nominated by a certificate signed by electors, as in this act provided: Provided, however, that nothing in this act shall be understood to apply to the nomination or election of members of a board of freeholders to draft a new charter for such city or members of boards of education or shall apply in any way to school nominations or elections. (Laws 1913, p. 337.)

Sec. 6014a. Deposit as evidence of good faith.—Each candidate previous to filing such declaration papers, as in this act prescribed, shall pay to the treasurer of the city central committee of the political party upon whose ticket he proposes as a candidate and seeks nomination, a certain sum of money, as follows, to-wit: Two per cent of the salary for one year of the office for which he is a candidate, and take a receipt therefor, and file such receipt with and at the time he files his declaration papers. The said sums of money, so paid by the several candidates, shall be evidence of their good faith in filing said declaration papers, and shall be used as an expense fund by the several political parties upon whose tickets the various candidates propose as candidates and seek nomination after such nominations are made, it being the intent of this act that no sums or parts of the money so paid in shall be used by such treasurer or other member of such committee, or other person or persons, to procure or to defeat the nomination of any candidate or candidates who file declarations and seek nomination under the provisions of this act; and such sums of money so paid shall be excepted from the terms and provisions of the corrupt practice act. (Laws 1913, p. 337.)

Sec. 6015. Deposit of non-partisan candidate to go into city revenue fund—when.—Any person or persons filing certificates signed by electors for “non-partisan candidates” as provided in section 6034a of this act shall pay the same sum of money required by this act to be paid by any candidate of a political party for the office for which he proposes to the city treasurer, take a receipt therefor and file said receipt with his certificate of nomination; said sum of money so paid shall go into the general revenue fund of the city. (Laws 1913, p. 338.)

Sec. 6016. (R. S. 1899, § 7270, amended, Laws 1901, p. 170.)

Sec. 6091. Board of election commissioners created—how and by whom appointed—vacancies, how filled—duties of governor and mayors—qualifications and duties of commissioners.—There is hereby created a board of election commissioners for each city that is governed by the provisions of this article, composed of four members, who shall be appointed as follows: Within ten days after the expiration of the term of the present commissioners, the governor shall appoint four election commissioners, one of whom shall be by him designated as the chairman of the board, and one of whom shall be by him designated as secretary of the board, which said chairman and secretary shall be of opposite politics. The said four election commissioners shall hold their offices for the term of three years, and until their successors are appointed and qualified. All vacancies in said board created by resignation or otherwise shall be filled by appointment by the governor in the same manner for the unexpired term. Two of said election commissioners so appointed by the governor shall be members of the leading political party politically opposed to that to which the governor belongs, and shall be chosen from six eligible citizens named by the state committee of the said leading party politically opposed to that to which the governor belongs and the other two members of said board shall be selected from six eligible citizens named by the state committee of the political party to which the governor belongs. In case of a vacancy in said board from any cause whatever, it shall be filled in the same manner and from like lists as in the case of original appointments, save that the appointee for any unexpired term shall be a member of the same political party to which the person whom he may succeed belonged, and in no case shall more than two members of said board belong to the same political party. The commissioners thus appointed shall be legal voters and shall have resided five years in the state and at least two years next preceding their appointment in said city, and be of approved integrity and capacity. No commissioner shall hold any office nor be a candidate for any elective office while acting as such commissioner. Each commissioner before taking his seat in such board shall take an oath of office before the circuit court having jurisdiction in said city, or before a judge thereof, which oath shall be in substance in the following form, viz.:

I, ———, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am a citizen of the United States; that I have resided in the state of Missouri for a period of five years last past, and am a legal voter in the city of ———, in said state; that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the state of Missouri, and the laws passed in pursuance thereof to the best of my ability, and will faithfully demean myself and honestly discharge the duties of the office of election commissioner for said city.

Said board shall have the right to employ such additional assistants from time to time as may be necessary to promptly and correctly perform the duties of the office, under the direction of the board. They shall be divided equally between the two political parties to which the commissioners belong, and shall be subject to the same restrictions and subscribe to the same oath as the members of the board, which oath, when subscribed and sworn to before such court or judge, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the said court, and be there preserved. Each commissioner shall also, before taking such oath, give bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, with securities to be approved by said court, or by some judge thereof, conditioned for the faithful and honest performance of his duties, and the preservation of the property of the office. Such board of commissioners shall at once secure and open an office sufficient for the purpose of such board, which shall always be kept open during business hours of every day, Sundays and legal holidays excepted. Upon the appointment of such commissioners, the county clerk of the county in which such city is situated, and the board of election commissioners or other custodians of said property shall, upon demand, turn over to such board of election commissioners all registry books, poll books, tally sheets and ballot boxes heretofore used, and all other books, forms, blanks, stationery and property of every description in his hands in any way relating to registration or election, or the holding of elections, within said city. All the powers and duties now vested in and required of the boards of election commissioners in such cities shall hereafter vest in and be required of the board of election commissioners herein provided for. (Laws 1911, p. 244.)

Sec. 6092. Duty of commissioners to divide city into election precincts—re-arrangement of districts after elections.—It shall be the duty of the commissioners of election, as hereinafter provided for in such cities, within six months after taking effect of this article, to divide such cities into election precincts, regarding ward lines, and composed of compact and contiguous territory, which shall contain as nearly as practicable three hundred actual voters; and in making such division and establishing such precincts, such commissioners shall take as a basis the poll books or the number of votes cast at the last previous presidential election. At least six months before each presidential election the board of election commissioners shall revise and rearrange the precincts and increase or decrease their number on the basis of the vote cast at the previous presidential election, making such precincts to contain, as near as practicable, three hundred actual voters, measured by the vote of such election. The precincts in each ward shall be numbered from one upward, consecutively. (R. S. 1899, § 7272.)

Sec. 6093. Ballot boxes, poll books, etc., to be provided by board. Such board shall provide all necessary ballot boxes and all registry books, poll books, tally sheets, ballots, blanks and stationery of every description, with printed headings and certificates, and other equipment necessary and proper for the registry of voters and the conduct of such elections, and for every incidental purpose connected therewith. (R. S. 1899, § 7273.)

Sec. 6094. General registration of voters provided for.—After the first organization of such board of commissioners, it shall prepare for a new and general registration of voters for the next general city election, or general state or county election, as the case may be; and when made, such registry shall be continued and revised in the manner hereinafter provided. (R. S. 1899, § 7274.)

Sec. 6095. Judges and clerks of election, how chosen—qualification.—Said board of commissioners shall, at least sixty days prior to such election, select and choose four electors as judges of election for each precinct in such city. They must be citizens of the United States, and entitled to vote in the ward in which such precinct is located at the next election, and they must be men of good repute and character, who can speak, read and write the English language, and be skilled in the four fundamental rules of arithmetic, and they must be of good understanding and capable; they must reside or have a place of business in the precinct of the city for which they are selected to act, and they must not hold any office or employment under the United States, the state of Missouri, or under the county or city in which such election is to be held, and they must not be candidates for any office at the next ensuing election. Two clerks of election for each precinct shall be selected within the same time by said board, who shall possess the same qualifications as the judges. Being a notary public shall be no disqualification for judge or clerk. (R. S. 1899, § 7275.)

Sec. 6096. How judges and clerks of election shall be chosen—penalty for failure to appear and serve.—In the selection of judges and clerks of election, two judges and one clerk shall be selected from each of the two political parties of the state polling the largest number of votes at the last general election, to serve in each precinct, who shall be recognized members of the party from which selected. The commissioner, or commissioners, shall select the judges and clerks to represent the party to which said commissioners, or commissioner, belong; and the person thus selected shall be appointed and commissioned by the board, if qualified and confirmed. In case the persons so selected as judges and clerks do not appear for examination, on notification, then some other persons shall be selected and notified as aforesaid, until some eligible person is found who will serve. In all cases where the parties aforesaid do not appear and be examined, or if they do appear and refuse to serve, it shall be the duty of the commissioners to prosecute such persons for such forfeiture herein provided, and collect and pay over the same into the county treasury, or, in cities not within a county, into the city treasury; and the failure of such board of commissioners of election, or either of them, to prosecute such persons, shall be sufficient cause for removal from office, and, when established, the circuit court shall so remove such commissioner or commissioners from office. (R. S. 1899, § 7276.)

Sec. 6097. Examination of judges and clerks of election.—Each and every person so selected by the board of election commissioners shall be notified of the fact of his selection, with directions to appear, within the time fixed in the notice, before such board for the purpose of examination; and if, upon examination, he is found qualified, he shall, unless excused by such board, be bound to serve as such officer for the term for which he was appointed, or until his successor is selected, if his appointment shall be confirmed by the circuit court; but no person shall be excused by such board except by reason of ill-health, old age, unavoidable absence from the city, or other imperative cause: Provided, that a notice, in writing, to said board, sworn to by the person so selected, that he intends to be a candidate for office at the next ensuing election, and naming the office, shall be sufficient excuse for refusal to serve. Said board of election commissioners shall keep books in which shall be written down the names of all such judges and clerks agreed upon before such notification to appear before them, and if, when they appear, they shall be rejected for want of qualification, such facts shall be noted on said books opposite their names, and if excused on the grounds aforesaid, such facts, together with the reasons therefor, shall be noted; and in like manner also, if they do not appear for examination, such fact shall be noted. No person shall be compelled to serve as judge or clerk for two years after the expiration of his term of service. The judges and clerks shall be exempt from jury duty during the term of their service. In case such person so selected and notified to appear for examination shall not appear before such board as required, or if he does appear and shall refuse to serve, he shall forfeit not less than one hundred dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, unless it shall appear that he was not qualified for such service for any reason herein stated, or that he failed to appear for any of the grounds above set forth. And if any judge or clerk of election so selected and notified shall fail to appear for examination, or shall refuse to serve, or be excused as herein provided, the board shall forthwith appoint some other qualified judge or clerk in his place, and notify and examine him as herein provided for notification and examination in the first instance. (R. S. 1899, § 7277.)

Sec. 6038. Selection of judges and clerks to be reported to circuit court—objections—vacancies, how filled.—As soon as the judges and clerks are selected, a report of such selection shall be made and filed in the circuit court of the city or county, signed by said commissioners, certifying that the provisions of this article in regard to their qualifications have been complied with, and designating the particular political party from which each judge or clerk is appointed, and an application in writing shall be therewith made by said commissioners before said court for the confirmation of said appointments; whereupon the circuit court, or a judge thereof, shall enter an order that cause be shown, if any exist, against the confirmation of the appointment of any person so selected as judge or clerk, on or before the opening of the court, on a day to be fixed by the court, or said judge; at least five days must elapse between the time of making the application and the time fixed for hearing. Said board of election commissioners shall immediately give notice of such order, and the names of said judges and clerks so reported for confirmation, and their residence and the precincts for which they were selected, by causing the same to be published for two consecutive days in two daily newspapers in said city, and of opposite politics if possible. On the day set for hearing objections, the judges of the circuit court of the city or county, as the case may be, or such member as may be assigned therefor by the court in general term, shall sit to hear and determine all objections made in pursuance of this article relating to the confirmation of such judges and clerks of election. If no cause to the contrary be shown prior to the day fixed for hearing, the appointments made by the board of election commissioners shall be confirmed by an order entered of record. Objections to the confirmation of any judge or clerk of election shall be in writing and filed with the clerk of the court within the time aforesaid, and such objection shall specifically state the grounds upon which it is based, and shall be subscribed and sworn to before the clerk of said court by the person or persons making the same. The said circuit court, sitting as above, shall, on the day fixed for hearing objections, proceed to examine such objections, and shall thereupon fix a day, not later than five days thereafter, to hear such objections, and shall, by order of record, direct the board of election commissioners to serve notice upon the judges or clerks against whose confirmation objections have been filed; and said board of election commissioners shall forthwith serve such notice or notices by delivering the same to the proper person or persons, in the manner provided by law for the service of notices, and shall make due return thereof; and upon the day thus fixed for hearing the objections, the said court shall again sit as above, and shall then proceed summarily to hear and determine the objections made, and shall adjourn from day to day until all objections filed shall be determined. If the courts shall find that any judge or clerk against whose confirmation objections have been filed does not possess the qualifications in this article prescribed, the appointment of such judge or clerk shall be rejected by order of the court, in which order the cause or causes of rejection shall be specifically stated, and the costs thereof shall be paid by the city. If the objections filed shall be overruled, the appointment of the judge or clerk against whom the same was made shall be confirmed. If the court shall reject any appointments, the board of election commissioners shall forthwith nominate and report as hereinafter provided to said court some other person or persons, having the proper qualifications for judges or clerks, to fill such vacancy or vacancies; and the court shall thereupon summarily confirm or reject such appointments, or any of them, without delay, first giving two days' notice to any party against whom objections may be filed—and in all cases the party appointed to fill a vacancy must be of the same political party as the party whose place he was appointed to fill—and shall thus proceed to receive and pass upon appointments until all the precincts of the city are supplied with judges and clerks: Provided, that all objections shall be passed upon, and the list of judges and clerks completed, at least thirty-five days before the next election. Upon the confirmation of such judges and clerks, the board of election commissioners shall issue a commission to each of such judges and clerks, and appropriate forms shall be prepared by said board of election commissioners for such purpose. Such judges and clerks of election shall be commissioned for a term of office ending sixty days prior to the next general state election after the general election at which they were appointed to serve; and during their terms of office they shall also serve as judges and clerks at any special, local or municipal election which may be held. Where a vacancy in the office of judge or clerk shall occur after the final order of the circuit court confirming the appointments of the board of election commissioners, the said board shall make an appointment as hereinbefore provided to fill the vacancy and issue a commission to such officer: Provided, that if such vacancy occurs more than ten days before an election, said appointment must be submitted for confirmation to the circuit court, which shall act summarily; and any appointment made by said board shall be from the same political party as the party whose place he was appointed to fill, and when thus appointed such officer shall be subject to the same punishment in case of misbehavior as if confirmed by said court. Said board of election commissioners shall have the right at any time, in case of official misbehavior or neglect of duty, to remove any judge or clerk of election, and cause such vacancy to be filled in accordance with this article: Provided, that in all cases vacancies shall be filled by the appointment of members of the same political party. Such board of election commissioners shall not remove any judge or clerk except for incapacity or official misbehavior, and the reason therefor must afterward be reported in writing to such court; and if such removal be willful and without cause, said members of the board of election commissioners causing said willful removal shall be guilty of a misdemeanor under this article. (R. S. 1899, § 7278.)

Sec. 6099. Oath of judges and clerks.—After the issue of a commission to such judges and clerks, they shall again be notified to appear at the office of said board of election commissioners, and shall then and there, after taking the oath of office before the board of election commissioners, or any member thereof, or some clerk of that office, who are hereby authorized to administer such oaths, receive their commissions; and the oath of office shall be in writing, and subscribed by each one, and shall be, in substance, as follows:

I, ———, residing at ———, in the city of ———, in the state of Missouri, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am a legal voter in the city of ———, in the state of Missouri; that I will support the laws and Constitution of the United States, and of the state of Missouri, and that I will honestly discharge the duties of and faithfully demean myself in the office of judge or clerk of election (and of registration) for the ———-precinct of the ——— ward of the city of ———, in the county of ———, in the state of Missouri, according to the best of my ability; that I will not disclose how any voter shall have voted at any election, unless required to do so as a witness in a proper judicial proceeding; that I will make no statement nor give any information of any kind as to the number of votes polled for any office or person, nor any other fact tending to show the state of the polls at any election, at any time previous to the closing of the polls.

Sec. 6100. Board to select place of registry and polling places.—It shall be the duty of the said board of election commissioners to appoint the place of registry and also the polling place in each precinct. Said board shall also cause the same to be fitted up, warmed, lighted and cleaned; but in each election precinct such place or places shall be in the most public, orderly and convenient portions thereof, and no building or part of a building shall be designated or used as a place of registry or revision of registration, or as a polling place, in which spirituous or intoxicating liquor is sold. It shall be the duty of the clerk of any court or of any justice of the peace of the county in which such city is located, or of said city if not in a county, where or before whom any person is tried and convicted of a misdemeanor connected with the exercise of the right of suffrage, to furnish at once to said board of commissioners the name of the party convicted of said misdemeanor, and his place of residence, if such fact be in the possession of said clerk or said justice: Provided, that if appeal shall be taken such facts shall also be certified, and such conviction shall not effect the right to register and vote until final determination of the appeal. It shall be the duty of the governor of the state, on or before the first day of October, in each year, to furnish to such commissioners of election the names of all persons pardoned by him out of the penitentiary, for any crime for which such party was indicted in a county where said city is located, or in a city not within a county. Sec. 6103. Sec. 6108. Judges to constitute precinct boards of registry.—The judges of election shall constitute the board of registry in the precinct for which they shall be appointed. (R. S. 1899, § 7288.)

Sec. 6109. Qualifications of voters.—Every male citizen of the United States, and every male person of foreign birth who may have declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, according to law, not less than one year nor more than five years before he offers to vote, who is over the age of twenty-one years, who has resided in the state one year next preceding the election at which he offers to vote, and during the last sixty days of the time shall have resided in the city where such election is held, and during the last twenty days of that time in the precinct at which he offers to vote, who has not been convicted of bribery, perjury or other infamous crime, or of a misdemeanor connected with the exercise of the right of suffrage, nor directly interested in any bet or wager depending upon the result of the election, nor an officer, soldier or marine in the regular army or navy of the United States, nor while kept at any poor house or other asylum at public expense, nor while confined in any public prison, shall be entitled to vote at such election, for all officers, state or municipal, made elective by the people, or at other elections held in pursuance of the laws of the state; but shall not vote elsewhere than in the precinct where his name is registered, and whereof he is registered as a resident. (R. S. 1899, § 7289.)

Sec. 6110. When registration shall be made—how conducted.— Such board of registry and the election clerks shall first meet in the precinct on Tuesday four weeks preceding the first general city election, or the first general state or county election, which may occur after the first appointment of such board of election commissioners, at the place designated by such board of commissioners, and they shall then proceed to make a general registration of all voters in such precinct. A new general registration shall be made by the board of registry in every year thereafter in which a presidential election occurs, and just prior thereto—the first day of such registration being on Tuesday, four weeks before such election, and the second day of registration being on the Saturday following; and the third day, Tuesday, three weeks before such election. Three registry books shall be furnished to each board of registry by the board of election commissioners for the purpose of such registration, and such books of registry shall be prepared substantially in the following form:

One of said registry books shall be denominated "public register" on the outside or on the first page. Said board of registry shall then proceed as follows:

First—They shall open the registry at eight o'clock a. m., and continue in session until nine o'clock p. m., on each of said days. One of the judges shall administer to all persons who shall personally apply to register the following oath or affirmation:

You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will fully and truly answer all such questions as shall be put to you touching your place of residence, name, place of birth, your qualifications as an elector, and your right as such to register and vote under the laws of this state: so help you God.

Second—Each of said clerks of election and one of said judges of election shall have charge of the registry books, and shall make the entries therein required by this article, and one of the judges shall ask the questions as to qualifications, and after he is through, any of the judges may ask questions. One of the judges of election may, when necessary, relieve one of the clerks from time to time, as necessity may seem to demand, in making entries in said book.

Third—The name of every applicant shall be entered in such registry book, and all the facts shall be therein stated, as hereinafter provided, whether he is entitled to vote or not. If it shall be determined by the board of registry that he is not a qualified voter in such precinct, then an entry shall be made in the appropriate column, "no," and if qualified, an entry shall be made in the same column, "yes." Unless a majority of the judges shall determine the applicant is a qualified voter, he shall be entered as not qualified; in case of a tie the board of commissioners shall decide, subject to the applicant's right of appeal to the circuit court as hereinafter provided.

Fourth—Only such male persons, of the age of twenty-one years, residing in such precinct, as apply personally for such registration, shall be entered in such register; but every applicant who would be twenty-one years of age on the day of the next election, or, if foreign born, whose declaration of intention to become naturalized will have been made one year before such election, if otherwise qualified, shall be entered on such registers. Every applicant who has commenced to reside in such precinct at least twenty days before such election shall be entered in such registry, and shall be marked "qualified" or "disqualified," as the case may be; but unless, on the day of election, he shall have resided twenty full days in such election precinct, he cannot vote therein, although otherwise qualified.

Fifth—The headings to the registry books shall be so prepared that the registry shall be made alphabetically, according to the surname of each person applying, but it shall be arranged so that the residence of such person shall appear in the first column. The register shall be ruled, and one name shall be written on each line, but no name shall be written between the lines. The entries shall be as follows:

1. Under the column "residence," the name and number of the street, avenue, or other location of the dwelling, if there be a definite number, and if there shall not be a number, such clear and definite description of the place of such dwelling as shall enable it to be readily ascertained. If there shall be more than one house at the number given by the applicant as his place of residence, state in which house he resides, and, if there be more than one family residing in said house, either the floor on which he resides, or the number or location of the room or rooms occupied by him, whether front or rear—every floor below the level of the street or ground being designated as the basement, the first floor above the level being designated as the first floor, and each floor above that as the second or such other floor as it may be.

2. Under the column "name," the name of the applicant, writing the surname first, and given or christian name after in full.

3. Under the column "nativity," the state, county, kingdom, empire or dominion, as the fact stated by the applicant shall be.

4. Under the column "color," the word "white" or "colored," as the fact is.

5. Under the subdivision of the general column "term of residence," the periods, by days, months or years, stated by the applicant.

6. Under the column "native," the word "yes;" under the column "naturalized," the word "yes," according to the fact stated. If the applicant be of foreign birth, and has not been naturalized, but has made a declaration of intention to become a citizen, then under the column "declaration of intention," the word "yes."

7. Under the column "date of papers," the date of naturalization, if naturalized, or of the declaration of the intention if made, or about that date. Where the applicant is of foreign birth, the board of registry shall require him to produce his naturalization papers or declaration of intention, as the case may be, unless the applicant shall make affidavit that they are lost or destroyed, and that he is unable to procure certified copies of them, with the reasons why he cannot procure them.

8. Under the column "court," the designation of the court in which, if foreign born, such naturalization was had or declaration of intention made; and if the name of the court cannot be had with certainty, then the name of the place in which such court was located.

9. Under the column "by act of congress," the word "yes;" in case such person, though foreign born, has been made a citizen by act of congress, without taking out his naturalization papers.

10. Under the column "qualified voter," the word "yes," or "no," as the fact shall appear or be determined by the board of registry—it being, however, required of them to designate as a qualified voter any male person who, if otherwise qualified, shall not, at the time of making application, be of age, provided the time when such applicant shall be of the age of twenty-one shall be subsequent to the date of his application, and not later than the day of election immediately following such time of applying, or, if foreign born, whose declaration of intention to become naturalized will have been made one year before such election.

11. Under the column "date of application," the month, day and year when the applicant presented himself and was adjudged a qualified voter in the election precinct.

12. Under the column "signature," in one of the registers, not the public register, the applicant shall write his name. If he is unable to write, he shall make his mark after his name is written for him.

13. Under the column of "remarks," whenever any member of the board of registry shall be in doubt about registering the applicant, said board shall require the applicant to give the name of three residents of the city who know that said applicant resides at the place from which he offers to register, which names shall be entered under the column headed "remarks." (R. S. 1899, § 7290.)

Sec. 6110a. Qualified voters absent or sick may file application for registration—statement to be filed—to be heard, when.—If any person who has the qualifications required by this article to entitle him to register as a voter in such city shall be absent therefrom at a distance of more than twenty-five miles, or confined by illness or other disability to his place of residence, during all of the days appointed for registration prior to any election at which he desires to vote, he may file his application in the office of said election commissioners to have his name registered in the precinct in which he resides. Such application shall be verified by his affidavit and shall show that he has the qualifications required of a voter by this article, and that he was prevented by said absence, sickness or disability from appearing for registration before the precinct board of registry on all of said registration days, specifying such days and stating at what place or places he was during each of said days, and where registration is claimed on account of absence, the day upon which he returned after his absence during said days, or in case of illness or other disability, stating the first day upon which such disability was removed. If his application is based upon his absence, he shall file at the same time the affidavits of two registered voters of said precinct, stating that to their knowledge he is a qualified voter, and setting out therein his qualifications, that he resides in said precinct, and that they believe in the truth of his statement in his affidavit as to his reasons for not appearing before said registry board on all of said days of registration, specifying them. Where such application is based upon a physical disability, the affidavit of said applicant shall describe the nature of such disability as the same is most commonly described, and said affidavit must be accompanied by an affidavit of a physician duly admitted to the practice of medicine in such city, which shall describe such disability as the same is most commonly described, and that such disability continued during said registration days, specifying them, also stating the day on which the same was first removed. Said board shall file all affidavits made as aforesaid and carefully preserve the same. Any voter may make objection to any person being registered upon such application in the manner and form as objections are required to be made before the registry board. The election commissioners shall sit specially to hear such applications on the Wednesday of the first week prior to said election, between the hours of nine a. m. and twelve m., and between two p. m. and ten p. m., and if all such applications be not then determined, it shall sit on the same hours of the next day. Said applicants shall appear in person before the commissioners on said Wednesday; they may be further examined by the commissioners, under oath, and further testimony be taken in favor of or against their applications. All cases shall be heard summarily and decided as soon as heard. If the board shall believe any applicant is entitled to registration according to the provisions of this section, he shall be registered as a voter; otherwise his application shall be rejected. If registered, opposite his name on the registry shall be entered the word "absentee" or "invalid," as the case may be. (Laws 1911, p. 246.)

Sec. 6111. Attestation of each day's registration lists.—At the end of each day's registry or revision of registration, each of said judges shall sign his name at the end of the list on each page, so that no new name can be added without discovery, and shall also sign a certificate, as hereinafter provided; but, before doing so, the said judges and clerks shall compare the three registers so kept, and cause any differences to be corrected, and make the same agree in all respects; and said judges shall then attach a certificate at the end of each register, in substance in the words and figures following:

We, the undersigned judges of election in ——— precinct of the ——— ward of the city ——— in the state of Missouri, do jointly and severally certify that at the general registration of electors in said election precinct, on the ——— day of ———, there were registered by us in said election precinct the names which in this book are entered, and the number of registered and qualified voters was and is the number of ———.

Dated ———.

(R. S. 1899, § 7291.)

Sec. 6112. Public exhibition of registry lists—proceedings when applicant for registration is rejected.—Said boards of registry shall, on or before noon of the day following the completion of such registry, after providing for proper protection of same, hang up the register, which shall be known as the public register, at the place of registration, so that it shall be accessible to the public during all the business hours; but the two other registers shall then be returned to the board of election commissioners at once. Any voter of the precinct shall be permitted to be present at the place of registration in said precinct, and shall have the right to challenge any applicant who applies to be registered, but he shall be examined, under oath, touching the cause for such challenge; and, when challenged, the applicant for registration must make an affidavit, in writing, setting out the facts which constitute him a voter in such precinct and file it with said board of registry, and if it shall be deemed sufficient, and if the board is convinced that such person is a qualified voter, then he must be admitted to such registry as qualified. Whenever any person claiming to be an elector of any election precinct in such city has, upon application, been denied the right to be registered as a qualified voter in such precinct, if two of the precinct judges favored registering him at the time of his application, he may, within three days after the day on which said board of registry sit for revision of the registration, make and sign an application, in writing, under oath, to said board of commissioners, in substance in the following form:

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I, ———, did on ———, make application to the board of registry of the ——— precinct of ——— ward of the city of ———, and that said board refused to register me as a qualified voter in said precinct; that I reside in said precinct, at No. ——— street, am a duly qualified voter and entitled to vote in said precinct at the next election.

And if such person shall, at the time of making the said affidavit, file with said board of election commissioners a statement or certificate signed by two of said precinct judges of opposite politics, to the effect that they believe such person is entitled to registration, the board shall examine into the facts, and if said board believes that such person is a qualified voter and entitled to registration in such precinct, said board shall enter his name on the proper register as is here and after provided, and thereon note the manner of his registration and shall file and preserve said affidavit and certificate in the office of the board. All of the proceedings before said board of commissioners in examining such applications shall be public and the orders of said board shall be published from day to day in the newspapers having the city printing in such city. The boards of election commissioners shall furnish to the board of registry in each precinct two blank books, which shall be named "verification lists," each page of which shall be ruled into four columns, and those on the left hand side shall be marked thus:

REGISTERED NAMES.

Street number.	Name of street.	Names of voters.	Register No.	Remarks.
.....

And the pages on the right hand side shall be marked thus:

NAMES NOT REGISTERED.

Street number.	Name of street.	Names of voters.	Remarks.
.....

Such books shall each contain pages sufficient for each street, avenue, alley and court in the precinct. During the progress of registration, or immediately thereafter, the clerks of said board shall transfer all the names upon the register to the left hand page of such "verification lists," arranging them according to the streets, avenues, alleys or courts, beginning with the lowest residence number, and placing them numerically, as nearly as possible, from the lowest up to the highest number. They shall first write the name of such street, avenue, alley or court at the top of the second column and then proceed to transfer the registered names to the page of such "verification lists," headed "registered names," according to the street number as above indicated. On the opposite page, headed "names not registered," the name of the same street, avenue, alley or court shall be written in the second column. If, during either day of registration, a registered voter of the ward shall come before the board of registry and make oath that he believes that any particular person upon said registry is not a qualified voter, such fact shall be noted; and after the completion of such "verification lists," such board, or one of said judges, shall make a cross or checked mark in ink opposite such name upon each of said "verification lists." If such judges shall, however, know that any person so complained of is a qualified voter and shall believe that such complaint was only made to vex and harass such qualified voter, then such cross or checked mark shall not be put upon such lists, but shall go upon such list in case any one of the judges desires. Said judges shall, before noon of the next day, hang up such public register at the place of registration, and within the same period of time return the other two registers to the office of said election commissioners. (R. S. 1899, § 7292.)

Sec. 6113. Clerks of election constituted precinct canvassers—duties.—The clerks of election are hereby constituted canvassers of the precinct for which they are appointed, and upon the Wednesday and Thursday following the third day of registration, if so much time shall be required, said two clerks shall, each having one of said "verification lists," go together and canvass such precinct, calling at each dwelling place or each house where any one may reside in such precinct, and each dwelling place as indicated upon said "verification lists," and ascertain the name of every male inhabitant over twenty-one years of age residing in such precinct; and if they shall find that any person upon their "verification lists," on the left hand page thereof, does not reside at the place designated thereby, they shall make a check mark or cross (X) opposite such name. Said canvassers shall also write down in their "verification lists," on the right hand page thereof, so designated, "names not registered," according to the street and street numbers, all the names of all persons so ascertained by them who reside in such precinct whose names are not already upon their "verification lists." No name shall be written down on said right hand page which already appears on said left hand page of said "verification lists." Whenever deemed necessary by said canvassers, or either of them, he or they may demand of the chief, captain, sergeant or other person having command of the police in such portion of the city, to furnish a policeman to accompany them and protect them in their duties when necessary; and it shall be the duty of such chief, captain, sergeant or other person having authority over such police in such locality to furnish a policeman for such purpose, and in default thereof, such chief, captain, sergeant or other person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor under this article, and shall be liable to a penalty of not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. If, in making any such canvass, any person shall refuse to answer questions and give the required information asked for and known to him or her, such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor under this article, and shall be liable to a penalty not to exceed fifty dollars. In making such canvass, such canvassers shall make special inquiry at the residences as designated in the registry and "verification lists," as to all the persons so registered as qualified voters. In making such canvass, said clerks shall meet at eight o'clock in the forenoon of each day, at such place in said precinct as the judges or majority of them shall direct, which direction of said judges shall be in writing, signed by the said judges or a majority of them; three copies thereof shall be made; one copy shall be given to each of said clerks at the close of the third day of registration, and the third copy thereof shall be returned to the board of election commissioners. Any neglect of such judges to give such direction to said clerks shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and such judge, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county or city jail not less than one nor more than six months. Said clerks shall meet at eight o'clock in the forenoon of each day of said canvass, at the place designated in said direction of the judges, and proceed with such canvass as hereinbefore directed. Each of said clerks shall have one copy of said "verification lists;" and if either of said clerks shall fail to appear at the place designated in such direction of the judges, by fifteen minutes after eight o'clock on either of said days, the chairman or secretary of the board of election commissioners of the same political faith as the clerk failing to appear, or, after appearing, failing to complete said canvass, shall immediately appoint a clerk of the same politics as the one absent or failing to act. And such clerk so willfully failing to appear at the place designated in said direction of the judges, or willfully refusing to continue or abandoning said canvass, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished, on conviction thereof, by imprisonment in the county or city jail for not less than one month nor more than one year. (R. S. 1899, § 7293.)

Sec. 6114. Notices to be sent to persons not found.—Immediately upon the completion of said canvass, said canvassers, or one of them, shall sign a notice and send the same through the United States mail, duly stamped, to the address given upon the registry and "verification lists," of all persons named therein against whose names they have made a cross or check mark, indicating that they did not reside at such place as before stated, and also to the address of all persons against whose names said registry board or judge of election has placed a check mark or cross in such "verification lists," which notice shall require such person to appear before the board of registry upon the Saturday following, giving the time of succession, and to show cause why his name should not be erased from such registry. Proper blanks and postage stamps shall be furnished for the purpose to said canvassers by the board of commissioners. A similar notice shall also be served by one of said canvassers, either at the time such canvass is being made or before the following Saturday, by leaving the same with the party, if found, or, if he be not found at the place designated in such registry and "verification lists," by leaving the same at such address, if there be such place. Such notice, to be sent through the mail, must be mailed not later than ten o'clock Friday morning of the week of such canvass. If sufficient postage stamps are not delivered to such canvassers by said board for the purpose aforesaid, then any one may furnish such postage stamps to such canvassers for that purpose, or such canvassers may procure the same at their own expense, and afterward render an account therefor to said commissioners, duly sworn to; and it shall be the duty of the said commissioners to audit said account and cause the same to be paid. It shall be the duty of such commissioners, upon application, to deliver to such canvassers postage stamps sufficient for the purpose aforesaid, when not delivered before, and it shall be the duty of such canvassers, or one of them, to apply to said commissioners for such postage stamps, if sufficient number have not been delivered to them for the purpose aforesaid; and any willful neglect of said canvassers to make application for sufficient postage stamps as aforesaid, and any willful neglect of such canvassers to mail the notice aforesaid to all the parties checked and designated as aforesaid, and the willful neglect of such canvassers to leave the notice aforesaid at the place designated for such person so designated, and any willful neglect to check the name of any person on said "verification lists," transferred from the registry as aforesaid and not found at the place designated, and any willful neglect to transfer all the names from the registry as aforesaid to such "verification lists," in the manner aforesaid, shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and such canvasser or canvassers shall be punished, upon conviction thereof, by imprisonment in the county or city jail for not less than one month nor more than one year. And it shall be the duty of said board of election commissioners, when complaint is made to them, to investigate the action of such clerks or canvassers, and to cause them to be prosecuted criminally for such willful neglect of duty. (R. S. 1899, § 7294.)

Sec. 6115. Revision of registry—false affidavit, penalty—naturalized citizens.—On the Saturday following the Tuesday three weeks preceding such general county, city or state election, said board of registry shall again meet at the place designated, and the said clerks of election shall meet with them, and they shall remain in session from twelve o'clock noon until ten o'clock p. m., for the sole purpose of revising their registry; and no new names shall be added. Said canvassers, or one of them, shall make out a list of the names of parties checked and designated as aforesaid, and to whom such notice has been sent, given or left with the address, and make and attach his or their affidavit or affidavits thereto, stating that notice duly stamped was mailed to each of said parties at the places designated on such lists, on or prior to ten o'clock a. m. of the previous Friday, and that notice was also personally left at the said address of each of said parties named in said list so attached, if there be any such address. Blank affidavits shall be furnished by said commissioners for the purpose aforesaid; but if none are furnished, such canvassers shall cause the same to be drawn, and they shall swear to such affidavit before one of the judges of such precinct. If either of said canvassers shall willfully neglect and fail to make such affidavit with the list aforesaid attached, he shall be punished in the manner as last above provided, and if such affidavit shall be willfully false, the maker thereof shall also be punished in the manner last aforesaid, and shall also be liable for perjury. If any person to whom such notice has been sent shall appear before the board of registry during that session, he shall make oath and sign an affidavit, in substance as follows:

I do solemnly swear that I am a citizen of the United States (or have declared my intention to become a citizen of the United States on the _____ day of _____, 19____, according to law), and that I have resided in the _____ precinct of the _____ ward in the city of _____ and the county of _____ and the state of Missouri, since the _____ day of _____; that I am not an officer, soldier or marine in the regular army or navy of the United States, and that I have never been convicted of any felony, or of any misdemeanor connected with the exercise of the right of suffrage (or if convicted, state the time of conviction, and when pardoned by the governor of the state).

This affidavit shall be signed and sworn to before one of such board of registry, and it shall afterward be preserved and filed in the office of said election commissioners. Thereupon said board of registry shall further examine him, and shall also swear such canvassers and hear them upon the question, and they shall also have the power to send one or both of said canvassers to make further examination and inquire at the place claimed by such person to be his residence, and again examine such canvassers touching the same; and if, after such further examination and hearing, the majority of said board are of the opinion that such person is not a qualified voter in such precinct, they shall mark the word "yes" under the column of the registry marked "erase," and shall also draw a line in ink under his name; which memorandum, in case of any registration, shall indicate that the name of such person is erased from the register, and such person shall not be entitled to vote unless his name be restored as hereinafter provided. If any person already registered shall appear before said board at such session and make oath that he has removed to another place in the same precinct, said board, if they believe him, shall not erase his name, but shall make the proper correction in his residence in the books of registry. If any person to whom notice has been sent because his declaration of intention to become naturalized has been made more than five years before the next election, shall appear before said board at such session, he shall show in the same manner as in case of original registration that he has become naturalized, otherwise his name shall be erased from the register. In making correction of entries as to residence and naturalization, a line shall be drawn through the former entries, the proper entries made, and the word "corrected," with the date, written in the column headed "remarks." During the last hour of said session, if any person so notified to appear at such session shall have not yet appeared and shown cause why his name should not be erased from such register, the same shall be erased in the manner aforesaid. Either of said clerks shall have the power and right of both in the matter pertaining to such canvass, except that both are required to go together to make such canvass. But a clerk who willfully neglects to perform his duty in making such canvass shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be imprisoned in the county or city jail not less than thirty nor more than sixty days. In case of temporary disability on the part of either canvasser or clerk, the judge who belongs to the same political party may appoint a temporary clerk or canvasser, who shall belong to the same party, and administer to him the usual oath of office, and he shall perform all the duties of the office until the disability of the regular clerk or canvasser is removed. The "verification lists" aforesaid, after the final revision, shall be at once returned by the board of registry to the board of election commissioners. (R. S. 1899, § 7295.)

Sec. 6116. Correction, verification and printing of registers.—At the end of the last session provided for, the said board of registry and said clerks shall compare and correct the three registers aforesaid and make them correspond and agree; and said judges shall then, immediately following the last name on each page of the register, sign their names so that no other name can be added without discovery, and shall add the certificate as provided at former sessions; and thereupon, and during the forenoon of the next secular day, said judges shall hang up the register, known as the public register, in the place of registration for the use of the public, which shall remain there until after the election, and shall return the other two registers to the possession of the board of election commissioners; and thereupon the said board of commissioners shall at once cause copies to be made of such registers, of all the names upon the same, with the address and registration number not marked erased, and shall have the same arranged according to the streets, avenues, courts or alleys, commencing with the lowest number, and arranging the same in order according to street numbers, and shall then cause such precinct register, under such arrangement, to be printed in plain large type, in sufficient numbers to meet all demands; and upon application, a copy of the same shall be given to any person in such precinct. Said commissioners may, in their discretion, cause such precinct register to be published in one or more newspapers published in said city. (R. S. 1899, § 7296.)

Sec. 6117. Application for erasure of names on register.—Any voter or voters in the ward containing such precinct may make application, in writing, before such board of election commissioners, to have any name upon such register of any precinct in the ward erased; which application shall be in substance in the words and figures following:

I (or we) ——— do hereby solemnly swear (or affirm) that I (or we) believe that ——— is not a qualified voter in ——— precinct of ——— ward of the city of ———, and hence I (or we) ask that his name be erased from the register of such precinct.

But it shall be a misdemeanor to sign or cause to be so filed any such application to have erased any name lawfully upon any such register, unless the person signing such application had then cause to fairly justify him in a belief that the name ought to be erased from such register. Such application shall be signed and sworn to by the applicant, and filed with said board. Thereupon, notice of such application, with a demand to appear and show cause why his name shall not be erased from said registry, shall be personally served upon such person, or left at his place of residence, named in such registry, by a messenger of said board of commissioners; as to the manner and time of serving such notice, such messenger shall make affidavit; said messenger shall also make affidavit of the fact in case he cannot find such person or his place of residence, and that he went to the place named on such register as his place of residence, which affidavit shall be sufficient evidence of due notice. Such notice shall be served at least one day before the time fixed for such party to show cause. Said commissioners shall also cause a like notice or demand to be sent by mail, duly stamped, and directed to such person to the address upon such registry, at least two days before the day fixed in said notice to show cause. (R. S. 1899, § 7297.)

Sec. 6118. Docketing and hearing applications.—A docket of all applications to said commissioners for the purpose of erasing a name on the register, shall be made out in the order of the wards and precincts. The commissioners shall sit to hear such applications on the Tuesday and Wednesday immediately preceding such election. They shall take up the wards and precincts in their numerical order. The decision on each application shall be announced at once after hearing, and a minute made thereof. Where an application to erase a name shall be allowed, said board shall cause the same to be erased forthwith. (R. S. 1899, § 7298.)

Sec. 6119. Duty of court as to applications to be placed on registry—registers to be delivered to judges, when.—The circuit court shall, on Friday and Saturday of the week prior to the week in which such election is to be held, specially sit to hear such applications as shall be made to it to be placed upon the register in any particular precinct. Such application shall be sworn to, and shall state that the party making the same has applied to the board of registry of the precinct and to the board of election commissioners, and that one or both boards refused to place him on such registry, or has stricken his name from such registry, as the case may be. Applications shall be made on or before the opening of the court on the Friday last aforesaid, and the court shall cause a docket of such applications to be made out, arranged by wards and precincts, and the same shall be heard summarily, and evidence may be introduced for and against such application. No formal pleadings shall be required. Each case shall be decided at once on hearing, and the clerk of the court shall make a minute of the disposition of each application; a copy of such minute shall at once be given to said commissioners, who shall forthwith cause such names to be placed upon the appropriate register, and indicate that it was entered by order of the court. After the entry of the application so allowed by said court, no further change shall be permitted, and the appropriate stamp prepared shall be affixed to the end of each page of names in each precinct registered by said board of commissioners. Said books of registry so prepared shall, on the day prior to the election, be delivered to the judges of election, one only, however, to be delivered to the judge or judges representing the same political party. No person admitted to the registry by order of such court or such board shall be protected by such order in case he should be indicted for false registration or false voting. (R. S. 1899, § 7299.)

Sec. 6120. Appeals from action of circuit court.—In case said circuit court shall refuse any such application, an order shall be entered accordingly on the Wednesday following the session of the court held for the purpose aforesaid, and any person desiring to appeal from the said order may appeal to the supreme court of the state, or court of appeals, according to the facts, if application be made therefor within five days after the entry of said order, and such appeal shall be allowed on the giving of an appeal bond in the penalty of two hundred and fifty dollars, conditioned to pay the expenses of such appeal in case his appeal be not sustained. The time for filing such appeal bond and certificate of evidence shall be fixed by the court, and upon presentation to the court of a certificate containing the evidence heard at such hearing within the time fixed by the court, the court shall sign the same, and thereupon the same shall become part of the record in said cause. (R. S. 1899, § 7300.)

Sec. 6121. Supplemental lists of names added and erased to be printed, etc.—A supplemental list of all persons who shall have been registered by order of such court, or registrations of absentees or invalids, provided in section 6110a, and a supplemental list of all persons erased from such registry by order of said board of commissioners or of said court, of sufficient quantity to accommodate each precinct, shall be printed by such board, and thereupon, on the day of election, said board shall cause to be posted up at each precinct where such election is to be held, the original printed registry and the supplemental lists aforesaid, and shall also cause a copy thereof to be delivered to each judge and clerk and to all other persons of the ward demanding the same. (R. S. 1899, § 7301, amended, Laws 1911, p. 246.)

Sec. 6122. Registration only on personal appearance of applicant—subsequent registrations.—Every general registration shall be made in the same manner and in conformity with directions heretofore given. At every general registration, every person desiring registration must appear in person and make application under oath, as in the case of the first registration herein provided. The same forms and blanks and methods of proceeding shall be had before and by the board of registry, and by the canvassers, and by and before the judges of election and election clerks, and by the board of election commissioners and court, in every subsequent general registration, as is directed herein for the first registration, and election following the same. (R. S. 1899, § 7302.)

Sec. 6123. Intermediate registration provided for.—At every election held in such city between the general registration above referred to, the last general registrations shall be used, but the same shall be revised by the board of registry of each precinct where such election is to be held, and for that purpose the board of registry shall meet on Tuesday, three weeks preceding such election, and shall hold a session from eight o'clock a. m. till nine o'clock p. m. on that day, and names may be added to the registers in the same way, upon sworn applications, as in the case of a general registration, and all the other forms and requirements are to be observed as provided with reference to general registration, both as regards the canvass after registration, the revision of the registration and otherwise. The board of election commissioners shall sit to register absentees or invalids on Wednesday of the first week prior to said election. (R. S. 1899, § 7303, amended, Laws 1911, p. 246.)

Sec. 6124. Registers open for inspection.—The registers in the office of the election commissioners shall at all times be open to public inspection without charge. (R. S. 1899, § 7304.)

Sec. 6125. Poll books, ballot boxes, etc., to be delivered to judges. Said judges of election of any precinct shall, on the day preceding any election, call at the office of said commissioners and receive two registers of said precinct, one being received by the representative of one leading political party, and the other by the representative of the other leading political party. The ballot box of such precinct shall be delivered to one of said judges, and it shall contain the poll books and all the blanks and stationery required for such election, with a sealed package of ballots and the key or keys shall be given to a judge of the opposite party. (R. S. 1899, § 7305.)

Sec. 6126. Registers to be returned to commissioners after elections.—On election day said judges shall take possession of said third or public register, and after such election, and on the next day, all three of said registers, shall be returned to said board of election commissioners, and said third public register shall, immediately after such election, be corrected by said board of commissioners so as to correspond with the other two registers, or in case it shall be mutilated, or in case any register of any precinct shall be lost, said board of commissioners shall cause a true copy to be made from the other register or registers, so that prior to the next meeting of the board of registry there shall be three registers for each precinct. This section is made applicable, and it shall be the duty of the judges of election to observe it, after each and every election. (R. S. 1899, § 7306.)

Sec. 6127. Removal, mutilation or destruction of register a misdemeanor—penalty.—If any person shall willfully remove, mutilate or destroy the public register hanging up at the place of registry, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be imprisoned in the county or city jail not less than three months nor more than twelve months. (R. S. 1899, § 7307.)

Sec. 6128. Vacancy on board of registry, how filled.—Any vacancy upon such board of registry on the day of registration shall be filled by the judge or judges present, always selecting a person of the same political party as the party absent, which appointee shall be vouched for by the remaining judge of such party for said precinct; and the same oath shall be administered by one of the judges present to such temporary judge as provided for regular judges. Whenever any regular judge shall return or be present, such temporary incumbent shall vacate his office. (R. S. 1899, § 7308.)

Sec. 6129. Revision of registry, when made.—At any special election occurring in a portion of such city only, or which is to fill a vacancy occurring in a single office, or which is to submit propositions or amendments to a vote of the people, there shall not be a previous revision of the registry: Provided, however, that at any special election at which is to be submitted a proposition to increase the indebtedness of any such city by borrowing money, there shall be a previous revision of the registry; and provided further, that in all cases where the limits of any such city shall have been extended, and there shall be an election occurring between the time when said limits shall have been extended and the next general registration, the board of election commissioners shall, for the purpose of such election, divide the new territory into election precincts, whether new wards have been created therein or not, and appoint judges and clerks, without confirmation by the circuit court, to conduct a revision of the registry and such election in such new territory. The qualified voters residing in said new territory may be registered at such revision of the registry and vote at such election. All forms and requirements with respect thereto shall be observed as herein provided for revision of the registry. (R. S. 1899, § 7309, amended, Laws 1909, p. 498.)

Sec. 6130. Polls to be opened and closed, when.—The election polls shall be open at six o'clock in the morning and continued open until seven o'clock in the afternoon of the same day, at which time the polls shall be closed, and if any judge or clerk shall be behind time for fifteen minutes after the time for opening such polls he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor under this article and punished accordingly. No judge or clerk shall absent himself to exceed five minutes at any one time until the ballots are all cast and counted and returns made, except one at a time of such judges or clerks may absent himself for sufficient time to cast his vote. (R. S. 1899, § 7310.)

Sec. 6131. Judge or clerk absent, vacancy, how filled—penalty for absence or refusal to act—other penalties.—If any judge or clerk shall not be present after the expiration of fifteen minutes from the time to open the polls, or be disqualified or refuse to act, the judge or judges present shall fill the place of such absent judge or clerk, or vacancy, always selecting a person of the same political party as the party absent. And one of the judges shall administer to such substitute the oath as required of the judge or clerk originally appointed, and blank forms shall be sent out by the commissioners for such purpose, which oath shall be preserved and returned to the commissioners, and such appointee shall be subject to the same punishment and penalties as any other judge or clerk. Whenever such regular judge or clerk shall be present, such substitute shall cease to act. Any judge or clerk who shall willfully absent himself from the polls on election day, without good cause, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be subject to a fine or penalty of five hundred dollars. And if such judge or clerk shall willfully detain any register or poll book or ballot, and not cause them to be produced at the polling place at the opening of the polls, or for fifteen minutes thereafter, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, shall be imprisoned not less than three months nor more than one year in the county or city jail, or be fined not less than two hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars. (R. S. 1899, § 7311.)

Sec. 6132. Ballot box to be kept in public view.—Before voting begins the ballot box shall be empty, and it shall be opened and shown to those present to be empty; and it shall not be removed from the public view from the time when it is shown to be empty until after the close of the polls. It shall be locked and the key delivered to one of the judges, and shall not be again opened until the close of the polls. The judges of election shall each be held guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be fined one thousand dollars if such ballot box shall not be kept constantly in public view during the progress of the election, unless it shall be shown by such judge that he protested against such obstruction of the view of the ballot box, and was overruled by the majority of the judges. If any barricade or other obstruction of any kind shall be, prior to or during such election, interposed, so that all who desire cannot constantly see such ballot box, it shall be the duty of such judges to remove such obstruction on request, or on their own motion; and if such obstruction shall not be removed on request, it shall be the duty of any sheriff, constable or police officer to remove the same on request. And such judges shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and liable to a penalty of one thousand dollars, on conviction, for not removing the same on demand, and shall be imprisoned in the county or city jail not less than six months nor more than one year. Any judge or justice of the peace shall have jurisdiction, on complaint, to issue a warrant to any constable, or the sheriff of the county or city, to remove such obstruction as a nuisance; and in executing such warrant, he may call any person to his assistance, and no other officer of the law or private individual shall interpose or interfere with such removal; and if he does, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction he shall be imprisoned in the county or city jail not less than sixty nor more than ninety days. (R. S. 1899, § 7312.)

Sec. 6133. Duties of clerks.—Each of the clerks of the election shall keep a poll book which contains a column headed "Number," another headed "Residence," and another headed "Names of Voters." The name and street and number of the residence of such elector voting shall be entered upon each of the poll books by the clerks, in regular succession, under the proper headings, and the number of such voter, in the order in which he voted, placed opposite the name in the column headed "Number." (R. S. 1899, § 7313.)

Sec. 6134. Duties of judges.—One of said judges of said election shall receive the ballot from the voter, and shall announce the residence and name of such voter in a loud voice. Said judge shall then write on the back of said ballot the number of the same, in the order in which it was received, which number shall also be placed opposite the name of said voter in the poll book in the column headed "Number," and put said vote into the ballot box, in presence of the voter and the judges and clerks of said election, and in plain view of the public. The judges having charge of such registry shall then, in a column prepared thereon, in the same line of the name of the voter, mark "Voted," or the letter "V." If such person so registered shall be challenged as disqualified, the party challenging shall assign his reasons therefor, and thereupon one of said judges shall administer to him an oath to answer questions; and if he shall take said oath, he shall then be questioned by said judge or judges touching such cause of challenge, and touching any other cause or disqualification. And he may also be questioned by the person challenging him in regard to his qualifications and identity. But if a majority of the judges are of the opinion that he is the person so registered and a qualified voter, his vote shall then be received accordingly. But if his vote be rejected by such judges, such person may afterward produce and deliver an affidavit to such judges, subscribed and sworn to by him before one of said judges, in which it shall be stated how long he has resided in such precinct, county or city and state, that he is a citizen of the United States, and is a duly qualified voter in such precinct, and that he is the identical person so registered; also supported by an affidavit of a registered voter who is a householder residing in such precinct, stating his own residence, and that he knows such person, and that he does reside at the place mentioned, and has resided in such precinct, county and state for the length of time as stated by such person, which shall be subscribed and sworn to in the same way; whereupon the vote of such person shall be received and entered as other votes. But such clerks and judges having charge of such registers shall state in their respective books the facts in such case, and the affidavits so delivered to said judges shall be preserved and returned to the office of the commissioners of election. Blank affidavits of the character aforesaid shall be sent out to the judges of all precincts, and the judges of election shall furnish the same on demand, and administer the oath without criticism. Such oaths, if administered by any other officer than such judge of election, shall not be received. (R. S. 1899, § 7314.)

Sec. 6135. None but those registered shall vote.—The vote of no one shall be received by said judges whose name does not appear upon said register as a qualified voter. (R. S. 1899, § 7315.)

Sec. 6136. Challengers, how selected—their rights and duties.—At every registration and election, each of the political parties shall have the right to designate and keep a challenger at each place of registration, revision of registration and voting, who shall be assigned such position immediately adjoining the judges of election, inside the polling or registration booth, as will enable him to see each person as he offers to register or vote, and who shall be protected, in the discharge of his duty, by the judges of election and the police. And authority signed by the recognized chairman or presiding officer of the chief managing committee of a party in any such city, shall be sufficient evidence of the right of the challenger for such party to be present inside the rooms where the ballot box is kept. But in case any challenger does not or cannot produce the authority of such chairman, it shall be the duty of such judges of election to recognize a challenger that shall be vouched for and presented to them by the persons present belonging to such political party, or who shall be vouched for by the judge representing such party. The chairman of the managing committee of each political party for such city may remove any challenger appointed by him, and substitute another in his place.

The challenger so appointed and admitted to the room where such ballot box is kept shall have the right and privilege of remaining during the canvass of the votes, and until the returns are duly signed and made. Each political party shall also have the right to a challenger placed conveniently outside of the polling booth, but not in the way of the voters. In addition to such challenger, each of the political parties casting votes at such poll, at the close of the polls shall have the right to the admission of two persons of their political faith into the room where such ballots are to be canvassed, to watch such canvass, which watchers may be selected as above prescribed in case of challengers; and in the absence of such selection, it shall be the duty of the judges of such election to admit into such room two persons of each political party so voting at such election, and who shall be vouched for by the judge or judges representing such political party, to be present during the canvass of such votes and the making of such returns; that such persons shall be of good character and sober, and shall in nowise interfere with such canvass. The police shall in no manner interfere with the entrance of such watchers into such room, but they shall keep order; and in case of any disorderly conduct on the part of any bystanders or watchers, it shall be the duty of the police, upon request of the judges, to exclude such persons from such room, and upon such watcher or watchers being excluded from such room, the judge or judges representing the same political party as the rejected watcher may select other watchers in their stead. (R. S. 1899, § 7316.)

Sec. 6137. Judges to be peace officers.—Said judges of election shall have authority to keep the peace, and to cause any person to be arrested for any breach of the peace or for any breach of election laws, or any interference with the progress of such election or of the canvass of the ballots, and it shall be the duty of all officers of the law present to obey the order of such judges of election; and an officer making an arrest by the direction of the judges shall be protected in making such arrest. (R. S. 1899, § 7317.)

Sec. 6138. Vote, how canvassed.—As soon as the poll of an election shall have been finally closed, the judges of election in their several precincts, shall immediately, and at the same place of the poll, proceed to canvass the vote so cast. Such canvass shall not be adjourned or postponed until it shall have been fully completed, nor until the several statements hereinafter required to be made by the judges and clerks shall have been made out and signed by them. The judges of election shall have the right to station one or more police officers, or officers of the peace, at such entrance to the room where such canvass is begun or about to take place, to exclude disorderly persons and to keep the peace. The challengers present, and the watchers of such canvass, shall be allowed to be present, and so near that they can see that the judges and clerks of said election are faithfully performing their duties. No judge of election or police or other officer shall allow such person to be molested or removed during the canvass of such ballots, nor until such statements have been made, completed and signed, unless he shall be personally guilty of fraudulent or disorderly conduct. (R. S. 1899, § 7318.)

Sec. 6139. Ballots, how counted.—The judges of election shall first count the whole number of ballots in the box. If the ballots shall be found to exceed the number of names entered on each of the poll lists, they shall reject the ballots, if any, found folded inside of a ballot; and if the ballots and the poll lists still do not agree after such rejection, they shall reject all ballots not numbered as required by section 6134 of this article, and no ballot not so numbered shall be counted. The ballots so rejected shall be enclosed in an envelope marked “rejected ballots,” and returned with the ballot boxes to the board of election commissioners; and, the ballots or poll list agreeing or being made to agree in this way, the board shall proceed to count the vote in the following manner: Said judges shall open the ballots and place those which contain the same names together, so that the several kinds shall be in separate piles or on separate files. Each of the judges shall examine the separate files which are, or are supposed to be alike and exclude from such files any which may have a name or an erasure, or in any manner shall be different from the other of such file. One of said judges shall then take one file of the kind of ballots which contain the same names and count them by the tens, carefully examining each name on each of said ballots. Such judge shall then pass the ten ballots aforesaid to a judge of the opposite political party, who shall count them in the same manner. One of the remaining judges, in the presence and under the view of the other judge, shall then call the names of the persons named in the ten ballots, and the offices for which they are designated, and the poll clerks shall tally ten votes for each of such persons. When said judges shall have gone through such file of ballots containing the same names by tens in that way, and when the poll clerks shall have tallied all the votes by tens for each of such persons, they shall then take up the next file of ballots containing the same names, and shall count them by tens in the same way, and shall call the names of the persons named in said ballots and the offices for which they are designated, and the tally clerks shall tally the votes by tens for each of said persons, in the same manner as in the first instance. When the counting of each file of ballots which contain the same names shall be completed, the poll clerks shall compare their tallies together and ascertain the total number of ballots of that kind so canvassed. And when they agree upon the number, one of them shall announce it in a loud voice to the judges. The said judges shall then canvass the other kind of ballots which do not correspond, those containing names partly from one kind of ballots, and partly from another, being those usually called “split tickets,” and those from which the name of the person proper to be voted for on such ballots has been omitted or erased, usually called “scratched tickets.” They shall be canvassed separately by one of the judges, which judge shall call each name to the poll clerks, and the office for which it is designated; and with the judges of the opposing political party looking at the ballot at the same time, and the poll clerk making tally of the same. When all the ballots have been canvassed in this manner, the poll clerks shall compare their tallies together, and ascertain the total number of votes received by each candidate, and when they agree upon the numbers, one of them shall announce in a loud voice to the judges the number of votes received by each candidate on each of the kinds of ballots containing his name, the number received by him on the split and scratched tickets, and the total number of votes received by him. (R. S. 1899, § 7319.)

Sec. 6140. Disposition of counted ballots.—Each batch of ten ballots counted by the judges of election shall, as soon as counted, read and tallied, be strung upon a strong string, thread or twine, in the order in which they have been read; and each batch shall thus be disposed of before the commencement of the count as to the next batch. (R. S. 1899, § 7320.)

Sec. 6141. Vote on propositions submitted canvassed, how.—Whenever any proposition is submitted to a vote of the people, and is printed or written upon the same ticket with the names of candidates for an office, the names, together with such proposition, shall be canvassed in the following manner: All the ballots shall be first separated into three piles, the first pile containing all the ballots in favor of such proposition; the second pile containing all the ballots against such proposition; and the third pile containing all the ballots not mentioning such proposition, or being neither for nor against such proposition. Each of the judges shall then examine each pile and see that the separation has been properly made. Then the first pile shall be counted by tens and the result announced to the clerk, who shall tally the same by tens; and so the second pile shall be counted, announced and tallied, and likewise the third pile, if necessary; whereupon, the clerks shall announce to the judges the number of votes for, and the number of votes against, such proposition. The ballots for or against any proposition submitted shall always be canvassed, counted and tallied before the names of candidates for any office are canvassed, counted or tallied. (R. S. 1899, § 7321.)

Sec. 6142. Headings for tally sheets.—If the tally sheets and returns should contain no heading for any proposition submitted, it shall be the duty of the clerks to write into such tally sheets and returns the headings necessary in order to keep a correct tally, and to make a correct and accurate return; and it shall be the legal duty of the clerks and judges of election to make a true count and correct return of all votes upon any such proposition; and any willful failure or neglect of any judge or clerk to do so shall constitute a felony, and on conviction, such judge or clerk shall be sent to the penitentiary for not less than three nor more than five years. (R. S. 1899, § 7322.)

Sec. 6143. Proclamation of result of election, etc.—ballots to be returned to commissioners—duty of commissioners.—When the canvass of the ballots shall have been completed, and the poll clerks shall have announced to the judges the total number of votes received by each candidate, a judge of election of each political party in turn shall then proclaim in a loud voice the total number of votes received by each of the persons voted for in such precinct, as shown by the tally sheets, and the office for which he is designated, and the number of votes for and the number of votes against any proposition which shall have been submitted to a vote of the people. Such proclamation shall be prima facie evidence of the result of the canvass of such ballots. Immediately after making such proclamation and before separating, the judges shall fold in two folds, and string closely upon a single piece of flexible wire, all ballots which have been counted by them, except those marked "objected to," "defective" or "rejected," unite the ends of such wire in a firm knot, seal the knot in such manner that it cannot be untied without breaking the seal, enclose the ballots so strung in an envelope, on which shall be indorsed, in writing or print, the number of the precinct and the date on which such election was held, and securely tie and seal such envelope with official wax impression seals, to be provided for the judges, in such manner that it cannot be opened without breaking the seals, and return said ballots, together with the package containing the ballots marked "defective," "objected to," or "rejected," in such sealed package or envelope to the board of election commissioners. Two of said judges, of opposite politics, shall, immediately after signing the statement of the result of the canvass and the tally sheets, and the sealing of the ballot box, go together to the office of the board of election commissioners and deliver said ballots to said election commissioners, who shall keep their office open until all of said ballots have been received. Immediately upon receiving said ballots, said election commissioners shall give a receipt therefor, and shall place them, properly arranged in the order of precinct numbers, in boxes which shall be securely locked, and the keys of all such boxes shall be given to one of said election commissioners; said boxes shall then be placed in a vault having a double lock, and said vault shall be locked, and one key thereof shall be taken and kept by each of the election commissioners not having the keys to the boxes containing the ballots: Provided, that the commissioners having the keys to said vault shall be of opposite political parties; said board of election commissioners shall securely keep said ballots for twelve months, not opening or inspecting them themselves nor allowing any one else to do so, except upon order of court in case of contested elections, or when it shall be necessary to produce them at the trial of any offense committed under this article. At the end of twelve months after said election, said ballots shall be destroyed: Provided, that if any contest of the election of any officer voted for at such election, or prosecution under this article, shall be pending at the expiration of said time, the said ballots shall not be destroyed until such contest or prosecution be finally determined. In all cases of contested elections, the parties contesting the same shall have the right to have said ballots opened and counted, and to have all errors of the judges in counting or refusing to count any ballot corrected by the court or body trying such contest. (R. S. 1899, § 7323.)

Sec. 6144. Certificate to be made by judges and clerks—disposition of.—The said judges of election shall make quadruple statements of the result of the canvass, one of which shall be written, or partly written and partly printed, in each of the poll books used at such election. Each of the statements shall contain a caption stating the day on which, and the number of the election precinct and the ward, city and county in relation to which such statement shall be made, and the time of opening and closing of the polls of such precinct. It shall also contain a statement showing the whole number of votes given for each person, designating the office for which they were given, which statement shall be written, or partly written and partly printed, in words at length; also the number of rejected ballots and the cause of such rejection; and in case a proposition of any kind has been submitted to a vote at such election, such statement shall also show the number of votes cast for or against such proposition, written out or partly written and partly printed in words at length, and at the end thereof a certificate that such statement is correct in all respects; which certificate, and each sheet of paper forming part of the statement, shall be subscribed by the said judges and election clerks. If any judge or election clerk shall decline to sign such returns, he shall state his reasons therefor, in writing, and a copy thereof signed by himself shall be enclosed with each return. Each of the statements, except the one contained in each of the poll books, shall be enclosed in an envelope, which shall then be securely sealed with sealing wax, or other adhesive material; and each of the judges and each of the election clerks shall write his name across every fold at which the envelope, if unfastened, could be opened. One of the envelopes shall be directed to the circuit clerk and one to the comptroller of the city, or to the officer of such city whose duties correspond with those of comptroller. Each set of tallies shall also be signed by the election clerks and the judges of election, and each shall be enclosed in an envelope, securely sealed and signed in like manner; and one of the envelopes shall be directed on the outside to the election commissioners and the other to the city register, if there be one, and if not, to the city clerk. On the outside of every envelope shall be indorsed whether it contains the statement of the votes cast or the tallies, and for what precinct and ward. (R. S. 1899, § 7324.)

Sec. 6145. Disposition of poll books, ballot boxes, etc.—The poll books which contain two of the several statements or returns shall be placed in the ballot box, and the ballot box shall then be locked and the key removed; whereupon, said judges of election shall all write their names upon a strip of paper of sufficient length for the following purposes: Said strip of paper, after the signing of their names thereon by said judges, shall then be pasted over the keyhole in the said ballot box, and extending upward to the upper lid of the box and carried for some distance over the top, and it shall be placed in such a way that the signatures of said judges shall extend across the place of the opening of the lid of the box, so that when the box is opened it shall tear such paper and destroy the signatures written thereon, and so that when the key shall be inserted in the keyhole it will tear the paper so pasted over the key hole. Such paper shall be fastened with sealing wax, or some other adhesive material, which will not permit the removal of such slip of paper without defacing the same. (R. S. 1899, § 7325.)

Sec. 6146. Ballot boxes, etc., to be delivered to commissioners.—Thereupon, one of the judges of election shall take charge of said ballot box and its contents so enclosed, and one of the judges, who shall represent the opposite political party from the one taking the ballot box, shall receive and hold the key thereto. The two judges who do not have charge of the ballot box shall each take one of the statements of the votes cast into his possession, sealed up in envelopes as aforesaid, and each of the clerks shall take one of the tally sheets, sealed up in the envelope as aforesaid. Verification lists—challenges.—The election commissioners shall prepare and furnish to the board of registration in each precinct, three blank books, to be known as “verification lists,” each page to be ruled into columns, and contain pages sufficient for each street, avenue and alley in the precinct. During the progress of registration, or immediately thereafter, the clerks of said board shall transfer all the names upon the register to the left-hand pages of such “verification lists,” arranging them according to the streets, avenues, alleys or courts, beginning with the lowest residence number, and placing them numerically, as nearly as possible, from the lowest up to the highest number. They shall first write the name of such street, avenue, alley or court at the top of the second column and then proceed to transfer the registered names to the pages of such “verification lists,” headed “registered names,” according to the street number as above indicated. If, during either day of registration, a registered voter of the ward shall come before the board of registry and make oath that he believes that any particular person upon such registry is not a qualified voter, such fact shall be noted; and after the completion of such “verification lists,” such board or one of said judges, shall make a cross or check mark in ink opposite such name upon each of said “verification lists.” If such judges shall, however, know that any person so complained of is a qualified voter, and shall believe that such complaint was only made to vex and harass such qualified voter, then such cross or checked mark shall not be put upon such lists. The board of registration shall return the two registers to the office of the board of election commissioners not later than eight p. m. of the day following the fourth day of registration. The three verification lists shall be given to said clerks at the close of the last day of registration. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6203. Precinct canvassers—duties.—The clerks of election are hereby constituted canvassers of the precinct for which they are appointed, and, upon the Friday and Saturday of the seventh week prior to said election, if so much time shall be required, said two clerks shall, each having one of said verification lists, go together and canvass such precinct, calling at each dwelling place or each house where any one may reside in such precinct, and each dwelling place as indicated upon said “verification lists,” and if they shall find that any person upon their “verification lists” does not reside at the place designated thereby, they shall make a check mark opposite such name. In making such canvass, such canvassers shall make special inquiry at the residences as designated in the registry and “verification lists,” as to all the persons so registered as qualified voters. Said clerks shall meet at eight o'clock in the forenoon of each day of said canvass, and proceed with such canvass. If either of said clerks shall fail to appear at the place designated by fifteen minutes after eight o'clock, on either of said days, the clerk appearing shall immediately notify the election commissioners of said failure to appear, and upon such notification, or upon being otherwise so informed, the election commissioners shall immediately appoint a clerk, of the same politics, in place of the one absent or failing to act; and if both of said clerks fail to appear within the time mentioned then the board of election commissioners, upon being informed of such failure, shall appoint two clerks of different politics in the places of those absent or failing to act. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6204. Notice to be sent those whose residence cannot be located.—Upon the completion of said canvass, said canvassers, or one of them, shall sign a notice and send the same through the mail, duly stamped, to the address given upon the registry and "verification lists" of all persons named therein against whose names they have made check marks, indicating that they did not reside at such place as before stated, and also to the address of all persons against whose names said registry board or judge of election has placed a check mark in such "verification lists," which shall require such person to appear before the board of registry upon the Friday of the fourth week prior to said election, and to show cause why his name should not be erased from such registry. Proper blanks and postage stamps shall be furnished for the purpose to said canvassers by the commissioners. A similar notice shall also be served by one of said canvassers, either at the time said canvass is being made on or before the Monday following said canvass by leaving the same with the party, if found, or, if he be not found, at the place designated in such registry and "verification lists," by leaving the same at such address, if there be such place. Such notice, to be sent through the mail, must be mailed not later than ten o'clock of said Monday morning. Upon the conclusion of said canvass, the clerks shall make, upon the third copy of the verification lists, the same notations as contained on the two lists used by them in making their canvass, and the three lists, when so checked, they shall deliver at the office of the election commissioners not later than eight p. m. of the Monday following their canvass. And it shall be the duty of said commissioners, when complaint is made to them, to investigate the action of such clerks or canvassers, and to cause them to be punished for such neglect of duty. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6205. Commissioners to print and post copies of verification lists.—The commissioners shall print, not later than Friday of the fifth week prior to said election, copies of said verification lists as returned to them by the clerks, with the various checks or cross marks thereon, and shall further print conspicuously on each copy a statement that all parties against whose names such checks or cross marks appear may be stricken from the registration lists unless they appear before the precinct board of revision at their session to be held on Friday of the fourth week prior to said election, and show cause why their names should not be so erased. A printed copy of the list for each precinct shall be posted near the front entrance of the polling place of such precinct, or as near the same as practicable, not later than Saturday of said fifth week. All such notices provided for in this section shall be printed in plain large type in sufficient numbers to meet the demand, and upon application a copy of the same shall be given, free of charge, to any registered voter in such precinct. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6206. Judges and clerks to revise registry, when—proceedings.—On the Friday of the fourth week prior to said election said board of registration, having first obtained from the election commissioners the books of registration and two of the verification lists for their election precincts, shall again meet at the place designated, and the said clerks of election shall meet with them, and they shall remain in session from ten a. m. until ten p. m. for the sole purpose of revising their registry; and no new names shall be added. Said canvassers, or one of them, shall make out a list of the names of parties checked and designated as aforesaid, and to whom such notice has been sent, given or left with the address, and attach his or their affidavit or affidavits thereto; blank forms shall be furnished, stating that notice was mailed to each of said parties at the places designated on such lists, on or prior to ten a. m. on Monday of the sixth week prior to said election, and that notice was also personally left on or before said hour of said day at the said address of each of said parties named in said list so attached, if there be any such address. If any person to whom such notice has been sent shall appear before the board of registration during said session, he shall make oath and sign an affidavit in substance as follows:

I do solemnly swear that I am a citizen of the United States (or have declared my intention to become a citizen of the United States on the _____ day of _____, 19—, according to law), and that I have resided in the _____ precinct of the _____ ward in the city of _____ and the county of _____, and in the state of Missouri, since the _____ day of _____; that I am not an officer, soldier or marine in the regular army of the United States, and that I have never been convicted of any felony or any misdemeanor connected with the exercise of the right of suffrage (or if convicted, state the time of conviction, and when pardoned by the governor of the state).

This affidavit shall be signed and sworn to before one of such board of registry, and it shall afterward be preserved and filed in the office of said election commissioners; said board of registration shall further examine him on oath, and also swear such canvassers, and hear him or them upon the question, and they shall also have the power to send one or both of said canvassers to make further examination and inquiry at the place claimed by such person to be his residence, and again examine such canvassers touching the same, and if, after such examination and hearing, the majority of said board are of the opinion that such person is not a qualified voter in such precinct, they shall mark the word "yes," under the column of the registry marked "erase," and shall also draw a line in ink under his name; which, in case of any registration, shall indicate that the name of such person is erased from the register, and shall not be entitled to vote unless his name be restored as herein provided. If any person to whom notice has been sent because his declaration of intention to become naturalized has been made more than five years before the next election, shall appear before said board at such session, he shall show in the same manner as in the case of original registration that he has become naturalized, otherwise his name shall be erased from the register. If any person, already registered, shall appear before said board at such session and make oath that he has removed to another place in the same precinct, said board, if they believe him, shall not erase his name, but shall make the correction to his residence in the books of registration. In making correction of entries as to residence and naturalization, a line should be drawn through the former entries, the proper entries made, and the word "corrected," with the date, written in the column headed "remarks." During the last hour of said session, if any person so notified to appear at such session shall not appear and show cause why his name should not be erased from such register, the same shall be erased in the manner aforesaid. Either of said clerks shall have the power and right of both in the matters pertaining to such canvass, except that both are required to go together to make such canvass. In the case of temporary disability on the part of either canvasser or clerk, either judge who belongs to the same political party may appoint a temporary clerk or canvasser, who shall belong to the same party, and administer to him the usual oath of office, and he shall perform all the duties of the office until the disability of the regular clerk or canvasser is removed. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6207. Voter may ask that name on registry be erased, when—appeals.—Any voter or voters in such precinct may make application in writing before said board of registration at the session mentioned in the next preceding section, to have any name upon the register of such precinct erased, which application shall be in substance in the words and figures following:

(I, or we,) do hereby solemnly swear (or affirm) that (I, or we,) believe that _____ is not a qualified voter in _____ precinct of _____ of the city _____, and hence ask that his name be erased from the register of such precinct.

Such application shall be signed and sworn to by the applicant, and filed by him with said board, and returned by them to the board of election commissioners with the registration lists to be filed in the office of said commissioners. The person making such application shall give the person whose name he or they seek to erase due notice in writing or otherwise, at least one day before the day of said session. If, upon hearing the application, the board of registration conclude to erase the name, they shall so note it on the register. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6208. Duty of judges upon hearing application.—If the judges upon hearing said application conclude that said name should not be erased from the register, but their conclusion is reached by the vote of less than a majority of the total number of judges appointed for such precinct, then they shall write on the register opposite the name of said voter the word "challenged," and that word shall appear opposite the name of such voter on the register on election day. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6209. Judges shall sign registry—registry to be sent to commissioners—commissioners to proceed, how—lists public records.—At the end of the last session provided for, the said board of registration and said clerks shall correct and compare the registers and verification lists aforesaid, and make them correspond and agree; and said judges and clerks shall then, immediately following the last name on each page of the registers, sign their names so that no other name can be added without discovery, and shall return the two registers and two verification lists to the possession of the election commissioners. Said commissioners shall cause the registration lists, as so revised, to be printed, and the names thereon and addresses thereof arranged in the order required in the verification lists, not later than Friday of the first week prior to the election for which such registration is made. All notices provided for in this section shall be printed in plain large type, in sufficient numbers to meet the demand, and upon application a copy of the same shall be given, free of charge, to any qualified voter of said precinct. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6210. Circuit court to hear applications to be placed on registration list.—The circuit court of said city shall, on Friday and Saturday of the third week prior to such election, specially sit to hear such applications as shall be made to it to place any name upon the register in any particular precinct. Such application shall be sworn to and shall state the facts showing the applicant to be a qualified voter, with his residence, and that the applicant has applied to the board of registry in the precinct during the proper hours on one of the registration days, and that said board refused to place his name on such registry; or that having been duly registered he appeared before said board on the day appointed for revision, and against his consent his name was stricken from the registration list; such application shall be filed in said court before its opening on Tuesday of the third week prior to said election, and wherever such court shall be composed of more than one division, applications shall be assigned in regular order to the various divisions, as in civil cases. The court shall cause a docket of such applications to be made out, arranged by wards and precincts, stating the name of the person whose registration is to be affected by such application. Such applications shall be heard summarily and evidence may be introduced for or against such application. No formal pleadings shall be required. Each case shall be decided at once on hearing, and the clerk of the court shall make a minute of the disposition of each application. If the court shall order any name to be placed upon the registration list, and such order shall not be appealed from, a minute of such order shall be certified to the election commissioners, who shall forthwith cause such name to be placed upon the proper register, and indicate that it was entered by order of the court. After the entry of the registration so allowed by said court (without appeal) no further change shall be permitted, except for the subsequent registration of absentees or invalids, as herein provided, when such further registration shall be made, if any, and the appropriate stamp prepared shall be affixed to the end of each page of names in each precinct registered by said board of commissioners. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6211. Appeals from circuit court.—As the circuit court decides each case, an order therein shall be entered not later than the Tuesday following the hearing of the application, and any person desiring to appeal from such order may appeal to the supreme court of the state, or court of appeals, according to the facts; if application be made therefor within two days after the entry of said order, such appeal shall be allowed on the giving of an appeal bond in the penalty of two hundred and fifty dollars, conditioned to pay the expense of such appeal in case his appeal be not sustained. The time for filing such appeal bond and certificate of evidence shall be within four days from the entry of said order, and upon presentation to the court of a certificate containing the evidence heard at such hearing within said time, the court shall sign the same, and thereupon the same shall become part of the record in said cause. The original record in such cause shall be at once transferred by the clerk of said court to the court to which such appeal lies, and such appellate court, or if it be in vacation, any judge thereof shall proceed at once to hear and determine the appeal, and the judgment rendered upon such hearing shall be at once certified to the board of election commissioners and also to the circuit court, and the board of election commissioners shall carry out the order made by said appellate court or such judge in vacation. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6212. Registration by board or court—no protection against false registration, etc.—No person admitted to any registry by order of any court, or by the board of election commissioners, shall be protected by such order in case he should be indicted for false registration or false voting. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6213. Transfers of registered voters.—Whenever any person who has been duly registered as a voter by the board of registration of the precinct in which he then resides, and whose name shall have been returned on the registration lists as a voter by the board of registration to the board of election commissioners, after the close of registration shall change his residence from one precinct in said city to another, or from one part of such precinct to another part thereof, before the day of the election for which he is registered as a voter, and shall, after making such change at any time on or before the Wednesday preceding such election apply to the board of election commissioners to have his name transferred from the precinct in which he is registered, or his residence changed from his former to his present residence in such precinct, said board shall cause him to be sworn and examined as to the facts of such change, and his statement shall be taken down in writing and signed and sworn to by him and duly certified by said board; if said board shall be satisfied that the applicant has changed his residence, as stated, and that he is entitled to have his name transferred and his place of residence changed, they shall first cause his name, where he moved from his former precinct, to be erased from the registry thereof, and transferred to the precinct in which he then resides, or if he has changed his residence from one place to another in said precinct, they shall change his address on the register of such precinct. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6214. Registration of invalids and absentees.—If any person who has the qualifications required by this article to entitle him to register as a voter in such city shall be absent therefrom at a distance of more than fifty miles, or confined by illness or other disability to his place of residence, during all of the days appointed for registration prior to any election at which he desires to vote, he may file his application in the office of said election commissioners to have his name registered in the precinct in which he resides. Such application shall be verified by his affidavit and shall show that he has the qualifications required of a voter by this article, and that he was prevented by said absence, sickness or disability from appearing for registration before the precinct board of registry on all of said registration days, specifying such days and stating at what place or places he was during each of said days, and where registration is claimed on account of absence, the day upon which he returned after his absence during said days, or in case of illness or other disability, stating the first day upon which such disability was removed. If his application is based upon his absence, he shall file at the same time the affidavits of two registered voters of said precinct stating that to their knowledge he is a qualified voter, and setting out therein his qualifications, that he resides in said precinct, and that they believe in the truth of his statement in his affidavit as to his reasons for not appearing before said registry board on all of said days of registration, specifying them. Where such application is based upon a physical disability, the affidavit of said applicant shall describe the nature of such disability as the same is most commonly described, and said affidavit must be accompanied by an affidavit of a physician duly admitted to the practice of medicine in such city, which shall describe such disability as the same is most commonly described, and that such disability continued during said registration days, specifying them, also stating the day on which the same was first removed. Said board shall file all affidavits made as aforesaid and carefully preserve the same. Any voter may make objection to any person being registered upon such application in the manner and form as objections are required to be made before the registry board. The election commissioners shall sit specially to hear such applications on the Wednesday of the first week prior to said election, between the hours of nine a. m. and twelve m., and between two p. m. and ten p. m., and if all such applications be not then determined, it shall sit on the same hours of the next day. Said applicants shall appear in person before the commissioners on said Wednesday; they may be further examined by the commissioners, under oath, and further testimony taken in favor of or against their applications. All cases shall be heard summarily and decided as soon as heard. If the board shall believe any applicant is entitled to registration according to the provisions of this section he shall be registered as a voter; otherwise his application shall be rejected. If registered, opposite his name on the registry shall be entered the word "absentee" or "invalid," as the case may be. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6215. Revised lists of voters—when to be completed and how posted.—The board of election commissioners shall cause to be printed and ready for distribution not later than Friday of the week prior to the election, the revised registry lists as returned to them by the registration board at the close of revision, and further corrected as far as may be necessary by the judgment of the supreme court, court of appeals, or the circuit court, or transfers by the board of commissioners, or registrations of absentees or invalids as herein provided. In cases, however, where the order of any court shall be received, or any transfer or registration shall be made by the election commissioners, as herein provided, at so late a date that the name ordered to be registered cannot be printed upon the revised registry lists, all of such names so to be registered in any precinct shall be printed in a supplemental list, copies of which shall be given upon application to any qualified voter in such precinct upon demand; a copy of which shall also be given to the judges of election of such precincts with the ballot box and poll books. Such revised lists shall be, except as corrected by the board of registration at revision, and by the orders above mentioned, in all respects like the registration lists above ordered to be published on the Friday of the fifth week before said election. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6216. Delivery of poll book, ballot boxes, etc., to judges.—Said commissioners shall, on the day preceding any election, have delivered to one of said judges, at his residence, one of the registers of said precinct, and the key (or keys, if there be more than one to the ballot box), and to a judge of the opposite political party, at his residence, the other of said registers, the ballot box, poll books, verification lists and necessary blanks and stationery, and a sealed package of ballots. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6217. Polls to be opened and closed, when—place of absent judge or clerk, how filled—penalty for being absent or late—appointees, oath and duties.—The election polls shall be opened at six o'clock in the morning and continue open until seven o'clock in the afternoon of the same day, at which time they shall be closed. No judge or clerk shall absent himself to exceed five minutes at any one time until the ballots are all cast and counted, and returns made thereof. If any judge or clerk shall not be present after the expiration of fifteen minutes from the time to open the polls, or be disqualified, or refuse to act, the judge or judges present shall fill the place of such absent judge or clerk, or vacancy, by selecting a person of the same political party as the judge or clerk absent. One of the judges shall administer to such judge or clerk the oath required of the judge or clerk originally appointed, and such appointee shall perform like duties and be subject to the same punishment and penalties as any other judge or clerk. If any judge or clerk shall be fifteen minutes late, but shall present himself at the precinct for which he is appointed, and offer to act, at or before seven o'clock in the forenoon, he shall be permitted to act, and the person, if any, who has been appointed to fill his place shall retire, but shall be entitled to one-half day's pay provided for judges and clerks hereunder, and the judge or clerk appointed who has failed to be present shall be entitled only to receive the remaining half day's pay; if, however, any judge or clerk shall not present himself at the polling place for which he is appointed to act at or before seven o'clock in the forenoon he shall not be permitted to act during that day, nor be entitled to any compensation for that day. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6218. Ballot box to be kept in public view—penalty.—Before voting begins the ballot box shall be empty, and it shall be opened and shown to those present to be empty, and not be removed from public view from the time when shown to be empty until after the close of the polls. It shall be locked and the key delivered to one of the judges and shall not again be opened until the close of the polls. If any obstruction shall be, prior to or during such election, interposed so that all who desire cannot constantly see such ballot box, it shall be the duty of such judges to remove such obstruction on request of any voter of the precinct, or on their own motion. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6219. Poll book, how kept.—Each of the clerks of the election shall keep a poll book which contains a column headed "number," another headed "residence," and another headed "names of voters." The name and street and number of the residence of such voter shall be entered upon each of the poll books by the clerks, in regular succession, under the proper headings, and the number of such voter, in the order in which he voted, placed opposite the name in the column headed "number." (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6220. Procedure when ballot is offered by voter—in cases of challenge.—One of the said judges of election shall receive the ballot from the voter, and shall announce his residence and name in a loud voice, and shall write on the back of said ballot the number of the same, in the order in which it was received, which number shall also be placed opposite the name of the voter in the poll book, in the column headed "number," and another judge shall put the vote in the ballot box in the presence of the voter and the judges and clerks, and in plain view of the public. The judge or clerk having charge of the registry shall then, in a column prepared thereon, in the same line of the name of the voter, mark in ink or with indelible pencil "voted." If such person so registered shall be challenged or disqualified, the party challenging shall assign his reason therefor, and thereupon one of said judges shall administer to him an oath to answer questions, and he shall be questioned by said judge or judges touching such cause of challenge, and touching any other cause of his disqualification, and may also be questioned by the person challenging him in regard to his qualifications and identity, but if a majority of the judges are of the opinion that he is the person so registered and a qualified voter, his vote shall then be received accordingly. The vote of no one shall be received by said judges whose name does not appear upon the books of registration as a qualified voter. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6221. Registry in force between general elections.—In any special election occurring in a portion of such city for the purpose of filling a vacancy occurring in a single office there shall not be a revision of the registry. At every election held in such cities between the general registration referred to the last general registry shall be used, and for that purpose the board of registration shall meet on Thursday of the seventh week preceding such election; the canvassers shall make their canvass on the Friday following; and the board of revision shall hold its session for revision on Friday of the fourth week prior to said election. Said sessions shall be held from eight o'clock a. m. until ten o'clock p. m. on each of said days, and names may be added, on the day of registration, or stricken from the register, on the day of revision, in the same way, upon sworn applications, as in the case of general registration. There may be appeals for registration to the circuit court on Friday and Saturday of the third week before said election. The board of election commissioners shall sit to register absentees or invalids on Wednesday of the first week prior to said election. There shall be no publication of the names of judges and clerks or of the revised lists. In all other respects, the proceedings, forms and requirements are to be observed as provided for general registration. At every election held in such city, between the time this article becomes a law and the next general registration provided for herein, the registry books of qualified voters in such cities at the last general city or state election, and used in said election as the registry of qualified voters of such cities and the registry of qualified voters under the various sections of this article providing for registration, shall be the registry of qualified voters of such city used and in force for such elections. New books of registry shall be prepared and furnished as provided in this article by said election commissioners for the registration required to be made in every presidential year by this article; and the registry and other books no longer required, or used, shall be kept and preserved in the office of the election commissioners: Provided, that at every election for the ratification of a revised city charter, under the provisions of section 22, article 9 of the Constitution of Missouri, held in such cities between the general registrations referred to, the last general registry shall be used, and for that purpose the board of registration shall meet one day for registration on the fourteenth day preceding such election, unless said day should fall upon a legal holiday, when such registration shall be held on the next business day preceding such holiday; the canvassers shall make their canvass on the next business day following. Upon the completion of said canvass, said canvassers, or one of them, shall sign a notice and send the same through the mail, duly stamped, to the address given upon the registry and "verification lists" of all persons named therein against whose names they have made check marks, indicating that they did not reside at such place as before stated, and also to the address of all persons against whose names said registry board or judge of election has placed a check mark in such "verification lists," which shall require such person to appear before the board of registry upon the third business day following such canvass, and to show cause why his name should not be erased from such registry. Proper blanks and postage stamps shall be furnished for the purpose of such canvassers by the commissioners. Such notice must be mailed not later than ten o'clock of the morning succeeding the said canvass. No such notice, however, is to be served by leaving the same with the party or at the address designated in such registry and verification lists. Upon the conclusion of said canvass, the clerk shall make, upon the third copy of the verification lists, the same notations as contained on the two lists used by them in making their canvass, and the third list, when so checked, they shall deliver at the office of the election commissioners not later than eight p. m. of the next business day following said canvass. The board of revision shall hold its session for revision on the third business day following such canvass. Said sessions for registration and revision shall be held from eight o'clock a. m. until ten o'clock p. m. on each day of said days, and names may be added, on the day of registration, or stricken from the register, on the day of revision, in the same way, upon sworn applications, as in the case of a general registration. There may be appeals for registration to the circuit court on the fourth day before election, unless said day fall upon a Sunday or legal holiday, when the same shall be on the next business day preceding such fourth day. The board of election commissioners shall sit to register absentees or invalids on the next business day after said appeal day. There shall be no publication of the names of the judges and clerks or of the revised lists. In all respects, except as hereby modified, the proceedings, forms and requirements are to be observed as provided for general registration. (Laws 1903, p. 170, amended, Laws 1909, p. 495.)

Sec. 6222. Judges to be peace officers—challengers.—Said judges of election shall have authority to keep the peace and to cause any person to be arrested for any breach of the peace or for any breach of the election laws, or for any interference with the progress of such election or of the canvass of the ballots; and it shall be the duty of all officers of the law present to obey the orders of a majority of such judges of election, but less than a majority of such judges shall have no authority and no power to give any order to any such officer. And it shall be the duty of the board of police commissioners of such city to instruct all police officers accordingly. At every registration and election, each of the political parties shall have a right to designate and keep a challenger at each place of registration, revision of registration and voting, who shall be assigned such position inside the polling or registration booth, as will enable him to see each person as he offers to register or vote, and who shall be protected, in the discharge of his duty, by the judges of election. And authority signed by the recognized chairman or presiding officer of the chief managing committee of a party in any such city shall be sufficient evidence of the right of the challenger for such party to be present inside the room where the ballot box is kept. But in case the challenger does not or cannot produce the authority of such chairman, it shall be the duty of such judges of election to recognize a challenger that shall be vouched for and presented to them by the persons present belonging to such political party or who shall be vouched for by the judge representing such party. The chairman of the managing committee of each political party may remove such challenger appointed by him, and substitute another in his place. Two persons of each political party, represented on the ballot, of good character and standing, shall be admitted, by the judges, into the polling place to be present during the canvass of the votes and the making of the returns, in the same manner as herein provided in regard to challengers. Such challengers and other persons shall be duly registered voters of the precinct in which they act as challengers or watchers, of good character and sober, and shall in no wise interfere with such canvass. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6223. Vote to be canvassed, when.—As soon as the poll of an election shall be finally closed, the judges of election, in their several precincts, shall immediately, and at the same place of the election poll, proceed to canvass the votes. Such canvass shall not be adjourned or postponed until it shall be fully completed, nor until the statements herein required to be made by the judges and clerks shall be made out and signed by them. The judges of election shall have the right to station one or more police officers or other peace officers, at such entrance to the room where such canvass is begun or about to take place, to exclude noisy or disorderly persons, and to keep the peace. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6224. Vote, how canvassed.—The judges of election shall first count the whole number of ballots in the box. If the ballots shall be found to exceed the number of names entered upon each of the poll books, they shall reject the ballots, if any, found folded inside of a ballot; and if the ballots and the poll list do not agree after such rejection, they shall reject all ballots not numbered, and no ballot not so numbered shall be counted. The ballots so rejected shall be enclosed in an envelope marked "rejected ballots," and returned with the ballot boxes to the election commissioners; and the ballots or poll lists agreeing or being made to agree in this way, the board shall proceed to count the votes in the following manner: Said judges shall open the ballots and place those which contain the same names together, so that the several kinds shall be in separate piles, or on separate files. Each of the judges shall examine the separate files which are, or are supposed to be, alike, and exclude from such files any which may have a name or any erasure, or in any manner shall be different from the other of such file. One of said judges shall then take one file of the kind of ballots which contain the same name and count them by the tens, carefully examining each name of each of said ballots. Said judges shall then pass the ten ballots aforesaid to other judges, who shall count them in the same manner, and call the names of the persons named in the ten ballots, and the offices for which they are designated, and the poll clerks shall tally ten votes for each of such persons. When they shall have gone through such file of ballots containing the same names by tens in that way, and when the clerk shall have tallied all the votes by tens for each of said persons, they shall then take up the next pile of ballots containing the same names, and shall count them by tens in the same way, and shall call the names of the persons named in said ballots and the offices for which they are designated, and the clerks shall tally the vote by tens for each of said persons in the same manner. When the counting of each file of ballots which contain the same names shall be completed, the clerks shall compare their tallies together and ascertain the total number of ballots of that kind so canvassed, and when they agree upon the number, one of them shall announce it in a loud voice. The said judges shall then canvass the other kind of ballots which do not correspond, those containing names partly from one kind of ballots and partly from another, being those usually called "split tickets," and those from which the names of the persons proper to be voted for on such ballots had been omitted or erased, usually called "scratched tickets." They shall be canvassed separately by the judges, and each name called out to the clerks and the office for which it is designated, and the clerks making tally of the same. When all ballots are canvassed in this manner, the clerks shall compare their tallies together, and ascertain the total number of votes received by each candidate, and when they agree upon the number, one of them shall announce in a loud voice the number of votes received by each candidate on each of the kinds of ballots containing his name. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6225. Vote on proposition canvassed, how.—Whenever any proposition is submitted to a vote of the people, and is printed or written upon the same ticket with the names of candidates for an office, the names, together with such proposition, shall be canvassed in the following manner: All the ballots shall be first separated into three piles, the first pile containing all the ballots in favor of such proposition; the second pile containing all the ballots against such proposition; and the third pile containing all the ballots not mentioning such proposition, or being neither for nor against such proposition. Each of the judges shall then examine each pile and see that the separation has been properly made. Then the first pile shall be counted by tens and the result announced to the clerks, who shall tally the same by tens, and so the second pile shall be counted, announced and tallied, and likewise the third pile; and the clerks shall announce the number of votes for, and the number of votes against such proposition. The ballots for or against any proposition submitted shall always be canvassed, counted and tallied before the names of candidates for any office are canvassed, counted or tallied. If the tally sheets and returns should contain no heading for any proposition submitted, it shall be the duty of the clerks to write into such tally sheets and returns the headings necessary in order to keep a correct tally and to make a correct and accurate return, and it shall be the duty of the clerks and judges of election to make a true count and correct return of all votes upon any such proposition, and certify the same to the election commissioners, as provided herein in other cases. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6226. Statement of result of canvass made and certified, how.—The said judges of election shall make two statements of the result of the canvass, one of which shall be written or partly written and partly printed in each of the poll books used at such election. Each of these statements shall contain a caption stating the day on which, and the number of the election precinct and the ward, and city in relation to which such statement shall be made, and the time of opening and closing of the polls of such precinct. It shall also contain a statement showing the whole number of votes given for each person, designating the office for which they were given, which statement shall be written or partly written and partly printed in words at length; and in case a proposition of any kind has been submitted to a vote at such election, such statement shall also show the number of votes cast for or against such proposition, written out or partly written and partly printed in words at length, and at the end thereof a certificate that such statement is correct in all respects, which certificate, and each sheet of paper forming part of the statement, shall be subscribed by the said judges and election clerks. If any judge or election clerk shall decline to sign such returns, he shall state his reason therefor, in writing, and a copy thereof signed by himself shall be enclosed in an envelope, which shall then be securely sealed, and each of the judges and each of the election clerks shall write his name across every fold at which the envelope, if unfastened, could be opened. And the envelope shall be directed on the outside to the election commissioners. Each set of tallies shall also be signed by the election clerks and judges of election, and shall also be enclosed in an envelope, securely sealed and signed and directed on the outside of envelope to said election commissioners. On the outside of envelope shall be endorsed whether it contains the statement of the votes cast or the tallies, and for what precinct and ward. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6227. Poll books to be placed in ballot box—to be sealed, how.—The poll books which contain the statement of returns shall be placed in the ballot box, and the ballot box shall then be locked and the key removed; whereupon said judges of election shall all write their names upon a slip of paper of sufficient length for the following purposes: Said slip of paper, after the signing of their names thereon by said judges, shall then be pasted over the keyhole of the said box and extending upward to the upper lid of the box and carried for some distance over the top, and it shall be placed in such a way that the signatures of said judges shall extend across the place of the opening of the lid of the box, so that when the box is opened it shall tear such paper and destroy the signatures written thereon, and when the key shall be inserted in the keyhole it will tear the paper so pasted over the keyhole. Such paper shall be fastened with some adhesive material and so as not to permit the removal of such slip of paper without defacing it. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6228. Disposition of ballots.—The judges shall fold in two folds and string closely upon a string or wire, all ballots counted by them, except those marked "defective," or "rejected," unite the ends of such string or wire in a firm knot, enclose the ballots so strung in an envelope, on which shall be endorsed, in writing or print, the number of the precinct, date on which such election was held, and securely seal such envelope, so that it cannot be opened without breaking the seal, and return said ballots, together with the package containing the ballots marked "defective" or "objected" or "rejected," in such sealed package or envelope to the election commissioners. Two of said judges of opposite politics shall, immediately after signing the statement of the result of the canvass and tally sheets and the sealing of the ballot box, go together to the office of the election commissioners and deliver said ballot box and the key thereto to said election commissioners, who shall keep the office open until all of said ballot boxes have been received. Immediately upon receiving said ballot boxes said commissioners shall give a receipt therefor to said judges, and shall place them properly arranged in the order of precinct numbers in boxes which shall be securely locked. Said boxes shall be placed in a vault having a double lock, and said vault shall be locked and keys retained by commissioners of opposite political parties. Said election commissioners shall securely keep said ballot boxes for twelve months, not opening or inspecting them nor allowing any one else to do so, except upon order of court in case of contested election, or when it shall be necessary to produce them at the trial of any offense committed under this article. At the end of twelve months after said election, said ballots shall be destroyed: Provided, that if any contest of the election of any officer voted for at such election, or prosecution under this article shall be pending at the expiration of said time, the said ballots shall not be destroyed until such contest or prosecution be finally determined. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6229. Statement and tally sheet to be delivered to commissioners, etc.—Another judge shall take a statement of the votes cast into his possession, sealed up in an envelope as aforesaid, and one of the clerks shall take a tally sheet, sealed up in an envelope as aforesaid, and the judge having possession of statement and the clerk having possession of tally sheet, shall each, before twelve o'clock of the next day after such election, deliver the statement and tally sheet to the said election commissioners, and take a receipt from them therefor. And it shall be the duty of the said election commissioners to receive the same, and keep safely under lock and key until ordered to be surrendered as herein provided. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6230. Judges and clerks exempt from jury duty.—Every judge or clerk of election shall be exempt from jury duty from the day of his qualification as such until two years after his term of office expires, if and so long as he performs his duty as such judge or clerk at every election held in the precinct for which he is appointed from the day of his qualification until his term of office expires; and where a judge or clerk, duly appointed by the board of election commissioners, has qualified and performed his duty as judge or clerk at an election, he shall be exempt from jury service until the next election, and if such second election falls within the term for which he is appointed and he fails to perform his duties thereat, his exemption from jury service shall thereby cease. Any person not regularly appointed by the board of election commissioners, but who shall duly serve as judge or clerk at any election, because appointed to fill a vacancy at the polling place shall be exempt from jury service for six months thereafter. It shall be the duty of the jury commissioners in all cities subject to this article having jury commissioners, to see that no person is summoned to do jury service during the time for which he is exempt, as herein provided. And it shall be the duty of the board of election commissioners, after each election, to certify to the jury commissioners the names of the judges and clerks who served at such election. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6231. Disposition of ballot boxes by commissioners—penalty for failure to deliver to commissioners.—The said election commissioners, upon the receipt of said ballot box and key thereto, shall note the condition of seal or stamp on said box, and enter the fact touching the same upon a book kept by them, together with the name of the judge who returns such ballot box; he shall thereupon open said ballot box and remove the poll books containing the returns of the votes cast, and note upon the book their condition, and put them in a secure place under lock and key, to which the public, in no event, shall have access. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6232. Abstract of votes, how made—copy to be sent to secretary of state.—Within eight days after the close of such election such board of election commissioners shall publicly open all the returns aforesaid and shall make abstract of statements of all the votes for governor and lieutenant-governor on one sheet; all votes for other state officers on another sheet; all votes for presidential electors on another sheet; all votes for judges of the supreme court on another sheet; all votes for judges of the court of appeals on another sheet; all votes for members of congress and for senators and representatives to the general assembly on another sheet; all votes for county officers on another sheet; all votes for city officers on another sheet; all votes for any other officer on a separate and appropriate sheet; all votes for and all votes against any proposition which may be submitted to a vote of the people on another sheet. It shall be the duty of such board to canvass, add up and declare the result of every election held within the boundaries of such city, and transmit an abstract of the same to the secretary of state, or other proper officer, as required by law; and such abstract of results, and a certified copy thereof, shall be treated everywhere within the state, and by all public officers, with the same force and effect as the abstract of votes now authorized by the laws of the state in such cases made and provided. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6233. Commissioners to make out and deliver certificates of election.—The election commissioners shall make out a certificate of election to each person having the highest number of votes for the several offices voted for, including aldermen and members of the municipal assembly, and deliver such certificate of election to the person entitled to it on his application. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6234. Procedure in case fraud in returns is suspected.—If, upon opening the various returns so made, there shall be anything to indicate that a change has been made in such returns since signing the same by the judges and clerks, or any fraud in any respect touching such returns, it shall then be the duty of the board to have all the tallies opened and examined. If there shall be any doubts as to the genuineness of such returns for any precinct, and as to the actual vote as originally returned, and the truth respecting the same remain uncertain, it shall be the duty of said canvassers to examine any person or persons who were present at the time of the proclamation so made by the judges of election in such precinct, about which any doubt may arise, and the board shall be permitted to place such parties or witnesses under oath and examine them touching the same, and it shall be their duty to cause such parties who were present at the time of such proclamation to come before them, and a subpoena may be issued by the election commissioners compelling any such witness to come before such board and give their evidence touching the matter; and it shall be the duty of said board to declare the result of the vote in any such precinct in regard to which any question arises, in the vote, in the same manner as it was proclaimed by the judges of election after the canvass by them in such precinct. The result, so declared, shall be binding and conclusive, except in case of election contests. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6235. Compensation of commissioners, secretary and clerks—expenses paid by city.—In all cities not within counties such election commissioners, secretary of the board, judges and clerks of election and registration and clerks and assistants employed by the board of election commissioners shall be paid by the city. The members of said board of election commissioners shall each receive a salary of three thousand dollars a year, and the secretary of the board a salary of two thousand dollars a year, all payable monthly. The assistants and clerks employed by the election commissioners shall each receive a salary of four dollars per day for the time actually employed, payable monthly. All office and other expenses incurred by said board of election commissioners, and all office and other expenses and all costs and expenses of registration and election in such cities shall be paid out of the city treasury. All printing, binding, books, stationery, etc., shall be paid for in the same manner and contracted for by the board of election commissioners. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6236. Compensation of judges and clerks.—The judges and clerks of election, and the members of boards of registration and clerks in cities in this state having three hundred thousand inhabitants and over, shall each receive five dollars a day, for pay and compensation for their services. When judges or clerks of election shall be required to call at the election commissioners' offices for ballot boxes, registration books, or for any other purpose, on any day except on election day, they shall be allowed two dollars and fifty cents for said services. Said pay and compensation of judges and clerks of election, boards of registration and clerks, shall be paid by such city, and the municipal assembly thereof is hereby required to make necessary appropriation for such payments. (Laws 1903, p. 170, amended, Laws 1907, p. 112.)

Sec. 6236a. In certain cities election days holidays—effect on negotiable paper.—The days upon which the general state or county or city elections shall hereafter be held in such cities shall be holidays for all purposes whatever as regards presenting for payment or acceptance and of the protesting and giving notice of the dishonor of bills of exchange, bank checks and promissory notes, and be treated and considered as is the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday. (Laws 1911, p. 249.)

Sec. 6237. Majority may act for board.—The act of a majority of such board of election commissioners shall in all cases arising under this article be considered as the act of said board of election commissioners. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

Sec. 6238. Board to audit accounts.—Said board of election commissioners shall audit all the claims of the judges of election and of registration and all other claims, expenses and accounts under this article, and shall draw a warrant therefor upon the proper officer. (Laws 1903, p. 170.)

ELECTION OF SENATOR FROM MISSOURI TO UNITED STATES CONGRESS BY VOTE OF THE PEOPLE.

JOINT AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTION of the legislature of the state of Missouri ratifying and approving the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States relative to the election of United States senators.

Whereas the sixty-second congress of the United States of America at the second session, begun and held in the city of Washington on Monday the 4th day of December, 1911, proposed an amendment to the Constitution of the United States in words and figures as follows:

“That in lieu of the first paragraph of section three of article 1 of the Constitution of the United States, and in lieu of so much of paragraph two of the same section as relates to the filling of vacancies, the following be proposed as an amendment to the Constitution, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the states:

“The senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each state, elected by the people thereof, for six years; and each senator shall have one vote. The electors of each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the state legislatures.

“When vacancies happen in the representation of any state in the senate, the executive authority of such state shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies: Provided, that the legislature of any state may empower the executive thereof to make temporary appointments until the people fill the vacancies by election as the legislature may direct.

“This amendment shall not be so construed as to affect the election or term of any senator chosen before it becomes valid as part of the Constitution.” Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the house of representatives, the senate concurring therein, that the legislature of the state of Missouri does hereby approve and ratify the foregoing proposed amendment and hereby gives its assent thereto, to the end that the same may become valid to all intents and purposes as a part of the Constitution of the United States; and be it further

Resolved, that a duly attested copy of this resolution, together with the proper evidence of its adoption, be transmitted by the secretary of state of the state of Missouri to the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives and the secretary of state of the United States at Washington, D. C. (Laws 1913, p. 785.)

(The above has been ratified by the legislatures of over three-fourths of the states and is now a part of the Constitution of the United States.)

When any such initiative or referendum petition shall be offered for filing, the secretary of state, in the presence of the governor and the person offering the same for filing, shall detach the sheet containing the signatures and affidavits, and cause them all to be attached to one or more printed copies of the measure so proposed by initiative or referendum petition; the detached copies of such measure shall be delivered to the person offering the same for filing. The secretary of state shall cause every such measure so approved by the people to be printed with the general laws enacted by the next ensuing session of the general assembly, with the date of the governor's proclamation declaring the same to have been approved by the people. (Laws 1909, p. 554.)

(Signature and title of officer before whom oath is made and his postoffice address.)

The forms herein given are not mandatory, and if substantially followed in any petition it shall be sufficient, disregarding clerical and merely technical errors. (Laws 1909, p. 554.)

Sec. 6750. Secretary of state to file petitions, when—may be mandamus, when.—If the secretary of state shall refuse to accept and file any petitions for the initiative or for the referendum, any citizen may apply, within ten days after such refusal, to the circuit court for a writ of mandamus to compel him to do so. If it shall be decided by the court that such petition is legally sufficient, the secretary of state shall then file it, with a certified copy of the judgment attached thereto, as of the date on which it was originally offered for filing in his office. On showing that any petition filed is not legally sufficient, the court may enjoin the secretary of state and all other officers from certifying or printing on the official ballot for the ensuing election the ballot title and numbers of such measure. All such suits shall be advanced on the court docket and heard and decided by the court as quickly as possible. Either party may appeal to the supreme court within ten days after a decision is rendered. The circuit court of Cole county shall have jurisdiction in all such cases. (Laws 1909, p. 554.)

Sec. 6751. Duties of secretary of state and attorney-general relating to petitions.—When any measure shall be filed with the secretary of state, to be referred to the people thereof by the referendum petition, and when any measure shall be proposed by the initiative petition, the secretary of state shall forthwith transmit to the attorney-general of the state a copy thereof, and within ten days thereafter the attorney-general shall provide and return to the secretary of state a ballot title for said measure. The ballot title may be distinct from the legislative title of the measure, and shall express, in not exceeding one hundred words, the purpose of the measure. The ballot title shall be printed with the number of the measure on the official ballot. In making such ballot title the attorney-general shall, to the best of his ability, give a true and impartial statement of the purpose of the measure, and in such language that the ballot title shall not be intentionally an argument likely to create prejudice either for or against the measure. Any person who is dissatisfied with the ballot title provided by the attorney-general for any measure may appeal from his decision to the circuit court, as provided by section 6750, by petition, praying for a different title, and setting forth the reasons why the title prepared by the attorney-general is insufficient or unfair. No appeal shall be allowed from the decision of the attorney-general on a ballot title unless the same is taken within ten days after said decision is filed. A copy of every such decision shall be served by the secretary of state or the clerk of the court, upon the person offering or filing such initiative or referendum petition or appeal. Service of such decision may be by mail or telegram, and shall be made forthwith. Said circuit court shall thereupon examine said measure, hear arguments, and in its decision thereon certify to the secretary of state a ballot title for the measure in accord with the intent of this section. The decision of the circuit court shall be final. The secretary of state shall print on the official ballot the title thus certified to him. (Laws 1909, p. 554.)

Sec. 6752. Secretary to certify to county clerks, how.—The secretary of state, at the time he furnishes to the county clerks of the several counties certified copies of the names of the candidates of state and county offices, shall furnish to each of said county clerks his certified copy of the ballot title and numbers of the several measures to be voted upon at the coming general election, and he shall use for each measure the ballot title designated in the manner herein provided. Such ballot title shall in no case exceed one hundred words, and shall not resemble, so far as probably to create confusion, any such title previously filed for any measure to be submitted at that election; he shall number such measures, and such ballot titles shall be printed on the official ballot in the order in which the acts referred by the general assembly and petitions by the people shall be filed in his office. It shall be the duty of the several county clerks to print said ballot title and numbers upon the official ballot in the order presented to them by the secretary of state and the relative position required by law. Measures referred by petition shall be designated "Referendum ordered by the petition of the people;" measures proposed by initiative petitions shall be designated and distinguished on the ballot by the heading "Proposed by initiative petition." (Laws 1909, p. 554.)

Sec. 6753. Voting on initiative and referendum subjects, how done.—The manner of voting upon the measures submitted to the people shall be the same as is now or may be required and provided by law; no measure shall be adopted unless it shall receive an affirmative majority of the total number of respective votes cast on such measures and entitled to be counted under the provisions of this chapter. If two or more conflicting laws shall be approved by the people at the same election, the law receiving the greatest number of affirmative votes shall be paramount in all particulars as to which there is a conflict, even though such law may not have received the greatest majority of affirmative votes. If two or more conflicting amendments to the Constitution shall be approved by the people at the same election, the amendment which receives the greatest number of affirmative votes shall be paramount in all particulars as to which there is a conflict, even though such amendment may not have received the greatest majority of affirmative votes. (Laws 1909, p. 554.)

Sec. 6754. Votes, how counted and canvassed.—The votes on measures and questions shall be counted, canvassed and returned by the regular boards of judges, clerks and officers as votes for candidates are counted, canvassed and returned, and the abstract made by the several county clerks of votes on measures shall be returned to the secretary of state on separate abstract sheets, in the manner provided for abstract of votes for state and county officers. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state, in the presence of the governor, to proceed within thirty days after the election, and sooner if the returns be all received, to canvass the votes given for each measure; and the governor shall forthwith issue his proclamation, giving the whole number of votes cast in the state for and against each measure and question, and declaring such measures as are approved by majority of those voting thereon to be in full force and effect as the law of the state of Missouri from the date of said proclamation: Provided, that if two or more measures shall be approved at said election which are known to conflict with each other or to contain conflicting provisions, he shall also proclaim which is paramount in accordance with the provisions of section 6753. (Laws 1909, p. 554.)

Sec. 6755. Who may sign petitions.—Every person who is a qualified elector of the state of Missouri may sign a petition for the referendum or for the initiative of any measure on which he is legally entitled to vote. Any person signing any name other than his own to any petition, or knowingly signing his name more than once for the same measure at one election, or who is not at the time of signing the same a legal voter of this state, or any officer or person willfully violating any provision of this chapter, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding two years, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Laws 1909, p. 554.)

Sec. 6756. Term county clerks to include city election boards.—That the term “county clerks” in this chapter shall be construed to include the board of election commissioners for the city of St. Louis and like board or similar officer or officers in any other city in this state, so far as the same relates to any act or duty required to be performed in said city like to that required of or with such county clerks in this chapter in the respective counties in this state. (Laws 1909, p. 544.)

CHAPTER 63—ARTICLE I.

INTOXICATING LIQUORS.

Sec. 7216. Not to sell on Sunday or election day.—Any person having a license as a dramshop keeper, who shall keep open such dramshop, or shall sell, give away, or otherwise dispose of, or suffer the same to be done, upon or about his premises, any intoxicating liquors, in any quantities, on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, or upon the day of any general election in this state, or upon any county, city, town or municipal election day, or upon any county, city, town or municipal primary election day, when said primary shall have been ordered by the legally constituted authority or authorities of any political party in such county, city, town or municipi-
